SUMMARY OF REMARKS OF GUY C. EMERSON AT MEETING OF THE NORTH AND SOUTH SHORE STREET SUPERINTENDENTS' CLUBS, HELD IN CITY HALL, BOSTON, JUNE 20, 1919.

Gentlemen of the Two Clubs here Represented and Invited Guests,— I am sincerely glad to be present at this gathering because the subject announced for discussion is one that has been of considerable interest to me for many years. In fact, it is a matter regarding which I at present hold somewhat decided opinions, to which at times I have given official expression. In connection with the preparation of an appendix to a report of the Boston Finance Commission in October, 1915, the matter relating to specifications for bituminous pavements, I used the following language:

> No provisions have been made in these specifications for the use of compounds containing coal tar, for the reason that the writer believes that even the best of these compounds are inferior in wearing quality to asphalt.

More recently a report of the Finance Commission dealing with an analogous subject contained a recommendation that might be interpreted as containing a doubt as to the wearing qualities of the coal tar compounds as compared with the asphalts. Also in the body of the report there was contained a direct statement expressing a belief in the superiority of asphalt over coal tar as a street surface binder.

Although these statements were issued by the Finance Commission and not by me, I believe they were entirely warranted by the evidence and, in fact, more modest than they would have been had I possessed the responsibility for them.

On account of one or all of these statements I presume is due my invitation to be present here today, although I realize that it is expected that I will urge the use of asphalt in our municipal street surfacing work. I want it to be clearly understood, however, that I am still open-minded in the matter and subject to a change of opinion whenever the evidence warrants. I am not at present engaged in the design or supervision of any bituminous street work; neither have I any financial relations to influence me in either way. I have no choice from a social standpoint, as I have friends in both camps.

I am also of a not unwarranted opinion that if we should get beyond the society of commercial representatives and sales organizations and among the lists of stockholders, we should find no great difference as regards the interests "higher up" that control substantially all varieties of bituminous products. With such convictions any partisanship not based strictly on the available evidence and the merits of the materials under discussion would be both absurd and extremely dangerous.

I frankly admit, however, my present preference for asphalt over the tar products and hope to be able to justify such preference by giving as briefly as possible my reasons for such preference.

Nothing better illustrates the wisdom of King Solomon and his remark that "there is no new thing under the sun" than the use of asphalt. We know that asphalt for certain purposes, particularly as a mortar in bricklaying and for the modeling of statues, was used as early as 3000 B. C. These structures are still in existence to testify to the permanency of asphalt.

This ancient asphalt, taken from various deposits and springs along the valley of the River Euphrates and the present oil-producing areas about the Caspian Sea, appears to have been practically the same in composition as the asphalts which we now use from sources about the Caribbean Sea.

The first recorded use of asphalt for paving purposes occurs in the records left us by King Nebuchadnezzar, who flourished about 600 B. C. Records found in the city of Babylon contain the following, relating to the thoroughfare known as the Procession street:

> The streets of Babylon, the Procession Street of Nabû and Marduk, my lords, which Nabopolassar, King of Babylon, the father who begot me, had made a road glistening with asphalt and burnt bricks; I, the wise suppliant who fears their lordships, placed above the bitumen and burnt bricks a mighty superstructure of shining dust, made them strong within with bitumen and burnt bricks as a high-lying road. Nabû and Marduk, when you traverse these streets in joy, may benefits for me rest upon your lips; life for distant days and well-being for the body. Before you I will advance upon them. May I attain eternal age. (Translation by Weissbach, "Excavations at Babylon," by Koldewey, page 54.)

In this record we seem to find the original brick pavement with asphalt joints. It also appears that the "road glistening with asphalt" may indicate something similar to our modern asphalt pavement, or at least what we now know as a "blanket coat."

Unfortunately coal tar products were not in existence at the time; otherwise we might settle the matter now at issue from these records. The discovery of coal tar appears not to have been made until 1691. Various other varieties of pitches which have been used from time to time for paving purposes followed closely the discovery. The modern asphalt pavement appears to be a development of the rock asphalt laid in France since about 1600, the first roadway being laid in 1658. The United States pioneer asphalt pavement seems to have been a small stretch in Newark, N. J., laid in 1870, although the pavement was soon adopted in Washington and pavements of Neuchatel asphalt were laid as early as 1876. These pavements were soon followed by pavements of Trinidad asphalt, which were first laid in Washington in 1879.

Various experiments were apparently continually being made by various experimenters to establish some process to increase the wearing powers of asphalt by increasing its ductility and decreasing its susceptibility to changes of temperature. A similar line of experiments appears to have been conducted as regards coal tar, this material being at the time practically a waste product, and on account of its properties and appearance being readily substituted for asphalt with great financial saving and sometimes without discovery. These experiments seem to have been more successful as regards asphalt than as regards coal tar, as they resulted in the present process of oxidation by blowing with hot air that produces much of our most satisfactory oil asphalts. Many of the pavements and sidewalks built in the seventies appear to have been known as asphalt pavements, although actually constructed with coal tar as a binder.

Prof. William Gillespie in his pioneer work on street pavements, issued in 1870, deals only with foreign rock asphalt. He refers to it as "too weak for carriageways in this climate, too soft in summer and too brittle in winter for even foot pavements; but in Paris the asphaltic sidewalks of the boulevards are almost perfect specimens of pavements." Professor Gillespie apparently attributes the superiority of Paris pavements to climatic conditions, the influence of which we of later date appreciate in the preparation of our specifications.

Col. W. A. Gilmore, in his work, "Roads, Streets and Pavements," 1876, page 185, after a discussion of the qualities of asphalt pavements, states the following:

> In striking contrast to the material above described in every conceivable respect are all those mixtures of wood tar, coal tar, pitch, rosin, etc., which have brought such unjust disrepute upon asphalt pavements.

The asphalt pavements to which Colonel Gilmore refers were undoubtedly those constructed of some variety of imported rock asphalt, the Trinidad article not at the time being in use, except perhaps experimentally.

The following is selected from a report of the Engineers of Bridges and Roads of France for the year 1874, A. Debeauve, engineer:

> Coal tar also dries up with the greatest rapidity and it only produces (by mixing it with limestone) brittle mastic. It is useless to treat it carefully with heat to obtain a proper consistency, because such consistency changes quickly by the spontaneous evaporation of the oil in question.
> The bitumen of Bastennes, on the contrary, furnishes an oil much more fixed, of much greater consistency, which does not evaporate perceptibly in the open air; excellent mastics are made with this bitumen.
> The preceding lines show us that the use of coal tar, which people have often sought to substitute for natural bitumen for the sake of economy, should be stopped. Numerous failures, which have made the public very distrustful of bituminous mastics, are due to this action.

By distilling gas tar properly, and by replacing the volatile oil which is set free by a fixed oil, there is formed a compound which is called fusible lava, which in certain cases can be put to good uses; but the reduction of the tar is never complete, because in trying to drive out all the volatile oil the material is decomposed; so that these artificial products can never equal the mastics, with natural bitumen as a base.

Writing of the same period, J. W. Howard, consulting engineer, in his volume, "Asphaltum," prepared for the use of the students of the Van Renssalaer Polytechnic Institute, makes the following statements, pages 16, 17:

Detection of Coal Tar, Distillates and Other Imitations and Adulterations.— Just after the success of asphalt pavements in Europe and the consequent reports sent to this country, a desire arose to have smooth and noiseless pavements in American cities. At that time the public did not know what asphalt was, and because of the expense of transporting asphaltic limestone from Europe to America, many artificial compounds and imitations were proposed. Before long that which was previously known as gas tar or coal tar began to be sold under the name "asphaltum," Tar was mixed with sand and gravel, first for walks and then for roadways. These mixtures were called "asphalt walks" and "asphalt pavements." This went so far that at the time of the Tweed ring in New York City many streets were spread over with coal tar imitations of asphalt pavements, which were soon called "tar poultice pavements" and rapidly disintegrated. The use of coal tar preparations for pavements of streets has almost ceased.

These artificial coal or gas tar products have legitimate uses; but they cannot take the place of natural mineral asphaltum. Coal tar must not be used as an adulteration of asphalt or its compounds.

Asphalt and coal tar differ in origin, composition, odor and fracture. A general similarity in appearance deceives a few, especially when some asphalt is mixed with the tar.

Coal tar, a product of distillation of the gas works, when exposed to water, air or the sun soon loses by evaporation its volatile oils and becomes a dry powder.

Genuine natural asphaltum retains its oils; hence its lasting qualities in pavements, concretes, etc.

Passing to more recent times, when the type of sheet asphalt pavement had become completely developed practically in the form that we now construct it, it is interesting to read the conclusions that have been reached by the highest disinterested authorities in the matter. As regards bituminous paving materials nearly all authorities refer to the reports of the Engineer Department of the District of Columbia, and experience derived from the pavements of Washington, D. C., and at a still later date to the investigations of the Office of Good Roads and Rural Engineering. Since the establishment of this office the Washington authorities have been rather careful not to publish information that might be injurious to the product of any particular manufacturer.

The Engineer office, however, has been free to criticise. Certain of its published statements regarding coal tar as compared with asphalt follow.

In the report of Capt. F. V. Green for the year ending June 30, 1885, page 6, appears the following statement:

> The use of coal tar as a paving cement is objectionable, both on account of the oils which it contains and on account of its sensitiveness to heat, which makes it soft in summer and brittle in winter. On account of these defects coal tar pavement has proved in the main less durable and more expensive to maintain than the asphalt.

In his report of 1887 Capt. Eugene Griffin states:

> Of the Evans pavements (coal tar), 157,324 square yards were resurfaced within two years after laying. The mean average expense for the maintenance of 745,305 square yards is 5½ cents per yard (per annum) for fifteen years. That a durable coal tar pavement can be laid is proven by the fact that vulcanite pavements have only averaged 2.0 cents per square yard per annum for fourteen years' maintenance. The annual cost of maintenance of 65,501 square yards of asphalt was 1.9 cents per square yard.

This statement regarding vulcanite, a proprietary pavement, is particularly significant from the fact that its wearing surface seems to have been composed of a mixture of 75 per cent of coal tar and 25 per cent of Trinidad asphalt. The presence of the asphalt perhaps accounts for its decided superiority over the pure coal tar pavements.

Captain Griffin also makes the following significant statement:

> The return to the distillate pavements (coal tar) was virtually forced upon the commissioners by the clause in the appropriation act of 1886–87, which provided that under this appropriation no contract shall be made for the making or repairing of concrete or asphalt pavements at a higher price than $2 per square yard of a quality equal to the best laid in the district prior to July 1, 1886, with the same depth of base.

The lowest proposal received for standard asphalt pavement was $2.25 per square yard, the ruling price for the last few years. This bid could not be considered and as smooth pavements had become a necessary luxury in the city the bids . . . for coal tar distillate were perforce accepted.

Again, in a report of the Commissioner of the District of Columbia for the year ending June 30, 1890, Commissioners John B. Wight, John W. Rose and Captain Lansing H. Beach, engineer commissioner, make the following statement regarding tar pavements:

This pavement answers the purpose well during hot weather, but as soon as the temperature becomes low enough to cause tar to become brittle it goes to pieces with little more cohesion than so much loose gravel and broken stone.

Passing from these reports to the various civil authorities who have recently written on the subject, Austin F. Byrne, civil engineer, in his important work on highway construction, states (page 240) as follows:

Wherever laid in the United States coal tar pavements as a rule have given little satisfaction, their failure being due to the presence of volatile oils in the tar which on exposure to atmospheric influences slowly oxidizes and becomes inert, thus destroying the cementing qualities of the tar. If these oils are removed before the tar is used the resulting material is brittle and soon crumbles to pieces after being laid. Coal tar is also very sensitive to heat; in summer it is soft, in winter brittle. On account of these defects the use of coal tar alone as a cementing material for pavements has been almost entirely abandoned.

Mr. Arthur N. Blanchard, consulting engineer, in his work on highway engineering is somewhat more cautious in his statements. On page 564, however, occurs the following statement:

Experiments in Rhode Island and in the Borough of Queens seem to have demonstrated that high carbon tar of a certain consistency is not as satisfactory or advisable for a seal coat as some of the types of asphalt where the percentage or volume of horse-drawn traffic is large. Pavements constructed with such material many times are wavy, due to the movement of the surface under traffic.

Prof. Ira O. Baker, in his work on highway construction, page 454, section 608, states as follows:

Coal tar was formerly employed to a considerable extent for paving purposes, the resulting pavement being much the same as sheet asphalt, but the use of coal tar has now practically been abandoned;

and again on page 460:

Tar macadam is of doubtful durability, since coal tar is subject to oxidation by the atmosphere, which renders it brittle and devoid of cementing power. Tar is affected by changes of temperature, and becomes friable in cold weather and soft in warm weather. There is less chance of success with tar macadam in the future than in the past, since in the present state of manufacture water gas is being substituted largely for coal gas; the quantity of gas tar produced is diminishing, its price is increasing, and its quality is deteriorating.

George W. Tilson, civil engineer, consulting engineer for the Borough of Brooklyn, in his work on street pavements, page 458, states:

The use of tar pavements has practically been abandoned, chiefly on account of the excessive cost of maintenance.

He also quotes the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, appointed under the act of June 11, 1878, as follows:

While some of the later and better classes of coal tar pavements show good service and give fair promise of reasonable durability, yet the general condition of this class of pavements in the city is such as to lead to their consideration as faulty and in particular as deficient in vitality.

Prof. Fred P. Spaulding of Cornell University, in his text-book on roads and pavements, states the following, page 148:

Numerous attempts have been made to construct a pavement by the use of coal tar as a cementing material in place of or in conjunction with asphaltum, but few of these have met any degree of success. Coal tar by itself as most commonly employed is soon disintegrated by the action of water. It is also strongly affected by the temperature, becoming soft in hot weather and brittle in cold weather.

Additional authorities could be quoted to extend the above list. All, however, express the same opinion in slightly different language. Several authorities omit entirely any discussion of coal tar in their works. In fact, I can find no authority who unhesitatingly claims superiority for tar products.

The opinions of the authorities quoted are typical of the opinions held by the majority of careful observers of the action of coal tar when exposed to our severe climatic conditions with excessive variations of temperature.

I presume that no person here present would presume to criticise any number of the eminent authorities just quoted on the ground of lack of competency or as being unqualified investigators. Therefore, unless we impute ulterior motives for their statements, it is difficult not to accept their conclusions. As regards improvements of coal tar, I am unable to find evidence that the weaknesses referred to have been in any great degree eliminated, and it is at least a fair inference that they cannot be entirely eliminated by any process of distillation, fluxing, cutting back, oxidation by chemical mixtures, by blowing with hot air, or by other manufacturing process at present commercially feasible. Otherwise it is plain that such improved processes would have been more generally adopted by manufacturers.

The evidence is that the defects of the old tar concrete sidewalk and street pavements of forty years or so ago still exist, notwithstanding some improvements made during recent years in preparing coal tar products for paving purposes.

At the present season of the year it is a frequent sight after a warm day to see pools of pure coal tar standing in gutters, the tar under the influence of the heat having separated from the stone and sand of the pavement. This action does not of necessity indicate an excess of binder in constructing the pavement, although in certain cases excess of binding material may be a contributory cause. The main causes of this action are the inherent properties of coal tar, as outlined by the various authorities quoted herein.

The loss of binders from new pavements caused by summer conditions results in a deficiency of binder for winter conditions, and this action, coupled with the loss of volatile constituents by natural distillation, causes the tar pavements to lose resiliency, to crack in cold weather, and finally to ravel and go to pieces rapidly. It may be that this action can be in part prevented by using a more dense base and by refilling of the surface by frequent seal coats. The first expedient is only a partial remedy and in some cases obstructs necessary drainage. The second is costly and should not be necessary.

The fact that certain country highways and park roads if built with a tar binder are kept in excellent condition under a dense but not remarkably heavy automobile traffic has little weight as an argument for the use of coal tar on city streets carrying a mixed traffic, unless we can have information of the maintenance cost as a comparison with asphalt roads under exactly the same physical and traffic conditions. Conditions being so different on city streets as compared with country and park roads, a discussion of the details of park road construction, an independent problem, would accomplish no useful purpose in determining the question at present at issue.

The experience of the various contractors having proprietary articles of pavement is also of interest in this connection. Many different varieties of proprietary and patented bituminous pavements have been more or less extensively used in this country during the last ten years. As first laid the binding material of these pavements was a coal tar product, in some cases changed to a mixture of coal tar and asphalt, and finally in the survivors to asphalt exclusively. In these cases large paving organizations, who have made a scientific study of their products with the object of securing the greatest durability at the least cost, have abandoned the use of coal tar for asphalt.

Passing to another and more important phase of the matter, that is, the matter of construction, I believe that it will be generally admitted that defects in construction methods are answerable for the far greater number of weaknesses of bituminous pavement, such defects being in general much more important in explaining the weaknesses of penetration work than the mere matter of type of bituminous binder used.

Undoubtedly there have been many improvements made in methods for construction penetration work in recent years. The work done in the past three or four years is in general a decided improvement over that previously done, largely perhaps on account of improved specifications resulting from the experience of former years. On account, however, of the many possibilities of defective construction, we cannot in general determine with any accuracy how far the type of binder used increases the wearing qualities of the pavement. For example, let us take an experience that we have all been through. A delegation from some society with objects similar to the ones of those here present makes an examination of a bituminous macadam street, with the object of determining the cause of "waving" in certain portions. Unless the reasons are more than usually apparent, there will be nearly as many independent opinions as there are examiners. Some of these opinions will be similar to the following:

Wrong material selected for binder,
Binder too soft,
Binder too cold when applied,
Too much binder,
Traffic too heavy,
Unequal distribution of binder,
Too little rolling,
Carelessness in dumping and spreading the stone,
Lack of uniformity in stone used,
Poor foundation,
Poor drainage from various causes, and so on, through the long list of possibilities, any one of which may be a more potent cause of damage than the question of the material of the binder used. In fact, unless on the constructed street we can get our materials side by side for purposes of comparison, under substantially the same physical conditions, our tests are worse than useless, as they lead invariably to false conclusions and we are obliged to fall back on the chemical facts and theoretical conditions previously outlined.

Although by discussions before companies such as are present today we may gain valuable knowledge of the subject, I think none of us anticipate that such methods can settle the question at issue. So long as coal tar remains in a considerable degree a waste product unless used for paving purposes, so long as it is produced by corporations of great financial resources, so long will the present propaganda be continued and the material be used by many street superintendents with honest conviction of its superiority for certain uses.

I believe, however, that the question will in a comparatively short time be settled by natural causes, which will eliminate coal tar as a road binder and also the high penetration asphalts now being used. Sooner or later street superintendents will wake up to the fact that there is no inherent reason why machine-mixed pavements should be more expensive than penetration work, and a greater number of municipalities will secure mixing plants and prepare their own machine-mixed pavements. By the adoption of central plants whereat surfacing material can be mixed by machinery under standard conditions, practically all the weaknesses of penetration work can be obviated without the necessity of greatly increased costs.

It is beyond my comprehension at the present time why large cities such as Boston continue the laying of bituminous macadam by penetration methods, when a much superior pavement can be obtained, many times at an actual decrease in the first cost and always, when maintenance and length of wear are taken into consideration, at less cost.

As regards coal tar in particular, there is also another reason. We are all aware of the exceedingly complex chemical nature of coal tar and the various important and useful compounds that can be distilled from tar produced by coke ovens and gas manufacturing methods. These products, if we include the different shades in colors of dyestuffs, are almost innumerable and their manufacture is bound to increase in this country in the near future. In fact, such manufactures have been rapidly increasing during recent months, on account of well-known war conditions. The production of coal tar, except possibly water gas tar, is not likely greatly to increase and its uses for other than paving purposes will certainly greatly increase. Therefore, in the not very distant future, we may look for the entire output of coal, gas and coke oven tar to be devoted to more lucrative purposes than as a binder for street pavements.

In conclusion, it will be, I believe, generally admitted that the coal tar products are no longer used for the machine-mixed pavements such as are considered most suitable for heavy mixed traffic such as occurs on city streets, or as some authorities express themselves, for first-class bituminous pavements. Why, then, the prices being substantially the same, should coal tar be used for second-class pavements, and why should we use second-class pavements at all? There is certainly no advantage to be gained by using cheap or inferior products, unless the saving in first cost is sufficient to warrant extra cost for maintenance.

At the present time the asphalt products are of about the same price as the coal tar for similar purposes. At no time in recent years has the difference in price been sufficient to warrant extra maintenance, even to the extent of a single seal coat.

The foregoing documents and opinions are presented with reference to the various types of bituminous pavements commonly used on city streets, that is, sheet asphalt, bituminous concrete or bituminous macadam. They are not intended to prejudice in any way the matter of the use of tar or other bituminous material used for surface coatings, dust laying, patching or special types of construction used on country and park roads.

ORDINANCES OF 1919, CHAPTER 3,

CONCERNING THE LICENSING AND REGULATION OF JITNEYS.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nineteen.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Section 1. No person, firm or corporation shall engage in the business of operating a motor vehicle or motor vehicles, except trackless trolley vehicles, so called, upon any public street or way in the city of Boston for the carriage of passengers for hire in such manner as to afford a means of transportation similar to that afforded by a street railway, without first obtaining from the city council a license to engage in such business, and unless such license is in force according to the provisions of and subject to this ordinance. Such license shall remain in force until revoked by order of the city council. The fee for such license shall be five dollars. Wherever the word "licensee" is used in this ordinance it shall mean the person, firm, or corporation licensed under this section.

Sect. 2. No licensee shall so operate any such motor vehicle except between such termini and over such route and with such stopping places as shall be specified by the city council in the license granted under the provisions of section one, and, except in case of emergency, the licensee shall not deviate from the specifications of said license without the approval of the city council.

Sect. 3. No licensee shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater, or less, or different compensation for the transportation of passengers or for any service in connection therewith, than the rates, fares and charges applicable to such transportation as specified in the license granted by the city council.

Sect. 4. No such license shall be issued or become operative until the licensee shall have filed with the city clerk a bond of a surety company approved by the city treasurer, conditioned to pay any final judgment against the principal named therein for any injury to person or property, or damage for causing the death of any person, by reason of any negligence or unlawful act on the part of the principal named in said bond, his or its agents, employees or drivers, in the use or operation of any such vehicle. The bond shall be in a sum sufficient to cover each and every vehicle operated by the licensee in accordance with the following schedule:

For a vehicle having a seating capacity of five persons or less — $5,000.

For a vehicle having a seating capacity of six or more persons — $5,000 and $500 additional for each passenger seat in excess of five.

Provided, however, that a bond of $25,000 shall be deemed sufficient to cover all the vehicles operated by any one licensee.

Sect. 5. No person shall drive, operate, or be in charge of any such motor vehicle in any public street, way, or place, without first obtaining, in addition to the chauffeur's license issued by the Massachusetts Highway Commission, a special annual license from the police commissioner for the city of Boston, and unless both of said licenses are in force. The special license granted by the police commissioner shall be upon such terms and conditions as the police commissioner may deem proper to impose and shall be granted only to a person licensed under section one of this ordinance or to an employee of a person, firm or corporation so licensed.

SECT. 6. No licensee shall operate by himself or by his agents or employees any such motor vehicle unless it has been inspected and licensed annually by the police commissioner for the city of Boston. The fee for such license shall be five dollars for each vehicle.

SECT. 7. Every licensee shall file with the police commissioner for the city of Boston:

(a) A schedule of operation in conformity with section twelve hereof, showing the effective date thereof, the time of arrival and departure from and at all termini, and the time of departure from important intermediate points.

(b) A schedule or tariff showing the passenger fares to be charged under the license granted by the city council between the several points or localities and the principal intermediate points to be served.

(c) The seating capacity, according to its trade rating, of each motor vehicle which it is proposed to operate.

If the motor vehicle has been adapted for use as a bus either by converting a freight-carrying truck into a passenger-carrying vehicle, or by reconstructing, modifying or adding to the body or seating arrangements of a passenger-carrying motor vehicle, a statement of the seating capacity shall be added.

SECT. 8. No such motor vehicle shall be used or operated without a printed sign thereon stating the termini of the route, the fare to be charged, and the license number, which sign shall be so printed and attached to the motor vehicle as to be plainly visible to persons on the street, or without a printed sign thereon showing the schedule of service filed and in effect at the time, which sign shall be so printed and attached to the said motor vehicle as to be plainly visible to passengers boarding such motor vehicle.

SECT. 9. The license issued for such motor vehicle shall designate the number of passengers, exclusive of the operator, the licensee is authorized to carry in said vehicle, and no person driving or in charge of said vehicle shall take on or suffer or permit any more persons to ride or to be carried thereon at any one time than the number designated in the license, or permit any person to stand inside or to stand or sit upon any running board, steps, fender, dash or hood thereof, or permit any person to ride on such motor vehicle outside the body thereof; provided, however, that in addition to the number of passengers which said motor vehicle by the terms of its license is permitted to carry, children under seven years of age may be carried therein, in arms, or seated on the laps of adult persons accompanying them, but no passenger with a child in arms or seated on the lap shall be permitted on any front seat of the vehicle.

Sect. 10. The licensee shall not reconstruct, materially alter, modify, or add to the body or seating arrangements of any such motor vehicle after the license thereof is issued, without first applying for and receiving the consent of the police commissioner for the city of Boston.

Sect. 11. No license for such motor vehicle shall be transferable or applicable to any other motor vehicle than that specified therein, provided, however, that the police commissioner may revise said license in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, so that under said license as revised another motor vehicle may be substituted for one previously covered.

Sect. 12. The schedule of operation filed by the licensee with his application for said license shall provide for the regular operation of a motor vehicle between the termini and over the route designated in the license. The licensee shall regularly operate a motor vehicle in substantial accordance with the schedule of operation filed and in effect at the time, except in cases of accidents, breakdowns, or other controlling emergency, shall operate such motor vehicle to the terminus of the route before turning around, and shall not operate nor permit to be operated any such motor vehicle off or away from the route stated and fixed in the license for the operation of such motor vehicle except in case of controlling emergency. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the operation, in addition to the service described in the schedule on file and in effect at the time, of special or extra trips over said route and between said termini during certain hours or on special occasions.

Sect. 13. No person operating any motor vehicle so licensed shall refuse to carry any person offering himself or herself at any regular stopping place for carriage, unless the seats of such vehicle are fully occupied, or unless such person is in an intoxicated condition, or conducting himself in a boisterous or disorderly manner, or is using profane language.

SECT. 14. No motor vehicle so licensed shall be operated from one-half hour after sunset till one-half hour before sunrise, with the top and curtains of said vehicle up, or while said vehicle is otherwise enclosed, unless there be sufficient light provided to adequately light the whole of the interior of said vehicle; and all motor vehicles so licensed with a seating capacity of more than seven passengers shall come to a full stop immediately before crossing the tracks of any railroad at grade.

SECT. 15. Every such motor vehicle shall be equipped with a suitable horn or other similar warning device, with a standard speedometer, and with a liquid fire extinguisher of a design or type approved by the police commissioner, and such horn, speedometer and fire extinguisher shall be kept in satisfactory operating condition at all times. Every such motor vehicle shall, when leaving either terminus, be equipped with at least one extra serviceable tire, and shall at all times carry and maintain in good working order a set of skid chains, which shall be applied to the rear wheels when such vehicle is operated in any street or public place where there is snow or ice, or during other weather conditions when the application of such chains is necessary to prevent skidding.

SECT. 16. No person operating any motor vehicle so licensed shall collect fares, make change or take on or discharge passengers while such vehicle is in motion; nor shall he have a lighted cigarette, cigar or pipe in his possession while any passenger is being carried therein, nor drink any intoxicating beverage or use morphine, cocaine, opium or other harmful drug of any kind, or be under the influence thereof while engaged in operating such vehicle.

SECT. 17. Every licensee shall immediately report fully, in writing, to the city clerk, the time, place, and cause of any fatal accident or any injury to a passenger or other person, and of any accident resulting in substantial damage to property, in which he or any motor vehicle or operator under his control is involved.

SECT. 18. The police commissioner for the city of Boston may suspend or revoke any license granted for such motor vehicle, and any license issued by him to any person to drive or operate such vehicles, for violation of any law of the commonwealth in relation to the operation of motor vehicles, or for violation of any ordinance or street traffic regulation, or for violation of any of the rules, restrictions, requirements or regulations herein prescribed, or for any other cause deemed by said police commissioner, in the exercise of reasonable discretion, to be sufficient.

SECT. 19. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this ordinance shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offense.

SECT. 20. This ordinance shall take effect on and after August 15, 1919.

In City Council, July 28, 1919. Passed.

TRADES COUNCIL 21

REPORT OF COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY MAYOR PETERS TO CONSIDER THE POLICE SITUATION.

BOSTON, October 3, 1919.

HON. ANDREW J. PETERS,
Mayor of Boston:

DEAR SIR,— Your committee believes that your Honor is unlikely to have occasion to call upon it for further assistance and therefore I am directed to transmit herewith the committee's report with the request that it be considered the final report of the Citizens' Committee.

The committee would have sent to you its report before this, except that the report necessarily deals chiefly with events before the strike and it seemed to your committee inopportune to report while the state was engaged with the immediate task of asserting its sovereignty, defeating the strike and re-establishing law and order.

The committee has stated the facts to your Honor in its report. It wishes further to express its opinion upon the present situation, which is embodied in the following resolution passed at its meeting held this afternoon:

Resolved, That the policemen of Boston were unjustified in leaving their posts; that it is vital for the preservation of law that officers of the law should not be permitted, by organization or otherwise, to become affiliated with any outside bodies the rules or interest of which might conflict with such duty; and that the committee fully supports the acts of the authorities in preserving law and order and towards defeating finally and conclusively the effort to enforce by strike the right of policemen to join the American Federation of Labor.

Yours very truly,

JAMES J. STORROW,
Chairman Citizens' Committee.

REPORT OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE TO HON. ANDREW J. PETERS, MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Boston, October 3, 1919.

Your Honor,— On August 27 you appointed a committee of 34 citizens (Appendix 1) to coöperate with you in dealing with the situation created by the action of the Boston police force in affiliating with the American Federation of Labor.

It seems proper that the Citizens' Committee should now submit to you a report of its labors, setting forth in chronological order such published statements, official documents and acts of the committee and the public officials concerned as may be necessary to give clearly the sequence of the more material facts or events leading up to the strike.

On August 27 you issued a statement, published in all the papers, setting forth your attitude as Mayor of the city. To quote from that statement:

> The issue between the commissioner and the policemen is clear-cut. It is the question of whether the policemen have a right to form a union and become affiliated with the A. F. of L.
>
> . . . . . .
> The A. F. of L. deserves our coöperation and support in every proper way, but I do not think the policemen of any of our states or municipalities should become affiliated with it. This, as I understand it, is Commissioner Curtis's attitude, and in this I think he is right. (Appendix 2.)

On the same day you appointed the Citizens' Committee.

On August 28 James J. Storrow, who had been requested by you to accept the chairmanship of the committee, before accepting the position communicated unofficially with the Police Commissioner to ascertain whether he favored the appointment of the Citizens' Committee, and whether it would be agreeable to him that Mr. Storrow should serve as chairman or if he should prefer some other citizen. The commissioner's reply was that he would be glad to see the committee appointed and glad to have Mr. Storrow as chairman.

On August 28 the chairman of the Citizens' Committee issued a statement to the effect that the policemen should not affiliate with the A. F. of L. (Appendix 3.)

Before this statement was issued it was informally submitted to the Police Commissioner for suggestion or criticism, and was approved by the commissioner, who suggested only a slight verbal change involving a word or two, which the chairman accepted and made before the statement was issued.

On August 29 the Citizens' Committee met and unanimously approved the statement issued by the chairman on the preceding day and also unanimously went on record as against the affiliation of the Boston police with the A. F. of L. (Appendix 4.)

The committee also completed its organization by the creation of the following Executive Committee:

George E. Brock, John R. Macomber, P. A. O'Connell, James J. Phelan, A. C. Ratshesky, Frederic S. Snyder, B. Preston Clark, Secretary, James J. Storrow, Chairman.

On August 29 a letter was received by the chairman from James H. Vahey, counsel for the Policemen's Union, and the chairman's reply brought about a conference. (Appendix 5.)

A conference between George E. Brock, James J. Phelan and James J. Storrow, representing the Citizens' Committee, and the officers and counsel of the Policemen's Union began on the morning of August 30 and lasted during the three days of August 30, August 31 and September 1.

At these conferences the position of the committee was one of scrupulous, rigid and unyielding adherence to the commissioner's and Mayor's position that the men must give up their A. F. of L. charter; that on no other basis could their retention as policemen be countenanced; that if the men should strike, the committee would do the utmost in their power to see that they were defeated.

The men and their counsel stressed the long hours, the inadequate pay, the six years of service before the full rate of pay was attained and the discomfort and unfitness of many of the older station houses. They also urged the inadequacy proved through a long series of years of their previous local organization known as the Boston Policemen's Social Club to effect any betterment in these conditions.

It should also be stated that at no time at any conference either with the police officials or their counsel did the committee or the chairman or any member of the committee ever discuss the question of what increase in pay the men would like, or should or might be given; nor what reduction in hours should be made, if any.

On Labor Day, September 1, the subcommittee which was holding these discussions with the Police Union officials and their counsel asked for a conference with the commissioner. The committee were received with the utmost courtesy by the commissioner who came to town from his summer residence to meet them. The only suggestion made by the commissioner which seemed to bear in any way on the discussions which the committee was holding with the Police Union officials and their counsel was the statement made by the commissioner that the captains, lieutenants and other officers of the police force should receive exactly the same per cent of increase in their pay as might be granted to the patrolmen. This struck the committee as proper and fitting, and at no time did the committee take or contemplate taking any action or position at variance with the commissioner's request in this regard.

By September 2 (Tuesday), although no definite adjustment had been worked out, the Executive Committee (with the exception of Mr. Macomber, who was absent) had arrived at the opinion that an adjustment could be worked out with the officials and their counsel which would thoroughly uphold the commissioner and the Mayor in their position that the policemen must sever their connection with the A. F. of L., and at the same time bring about an amicable settlement of the whole matter without a strike.

Though the commissioner had as yet made no announcement, it was then understood by the committee that he was expecting to announce his decision on Thursday morning, September 4, in regard to the men on trial for affiliating with the A. F. of L.

It was clear to the committee that finding the nineteen men guilty Thursday morning and proceeding to impose punishment at roll call that afternoon would end these discussions, put a stop to further consideration on the part of the policemen of a voluntary withdrawal from the A. F. of L., and at once precipitate a strike.

Accordingly a letter signed by the chairman of the Citizens' Committee, requesting a brief postponement of the decision, was presented to the commissioner

Wednesday morning at the commissioner's office by a member of the committee. No action was taken in response nor reply received to this letter, because counsel for the commissioner who received and read the letter declined to permit its delivery to the commissioner. (See copy of letter, Appendix 6.)

At the close of the conference following presentation of the letter, the commissioner sent word to counsel for the police officials that he would read his decision the following morning at 9.45. That same evening, feeling that an avoidable strike was impending and because under our laws the control and government of the Boston police force is vested in the state and not in the hands of the municipal authorities, a conference was sought with the Governor and attended on behalf of the Citizens' Committee by Charles G. Bancroft, Charles F. Choate, B. Preston Clark, James J. Phelan, George E. Brock and the chairman. The Governor, however, stated to the representative of the committee that he felt it was not his duty to communicate with the commissioner on the subject.

The next morning, and before the announced hour of the commissioner's decision, the Mayor made a formal request for a delay in the proceedings. (Appendix 7.) This letter was presented to counsel for the commissioner by your Honor, who was accompanied by Mr. Charles F. Choate, counsel of and member of the Citizens' Committee. The commissioner thereafter announced that his decision was adjourned from that Thursday morning until Monday, September 8, at 9.15 o'clock.

On Thursday afternoon, September 4, Mr. Choate drew and presented to Messrs. Vahey and Feeney a preliminary draft of adjustment of the controversy on the basis of a voluntary surrender of the A. F. of L. charter.

On September 6 this preliminary draft was revised into a final plan (Appendix 8) embodied in the letter of the 6th of September to your Honor and signed that afternoon by all the members of the Executive Committee except Mr. John R. Macomber, who was out of the state and inaccessible, but who upon his return approved the plan.

This plan had as its first clause and starting point the turning back by the Boston Police Union to the A. F. of L. of the charter which had been obtained from that organization by the Boston Police Union.

As the committee never discussed with either the police officials or their counsel what the wages of the men should be, or what the hours of the men should be, this plan did not undertake to fix either of these things. It did not even provide for decisive arbitration of these matters. The second clause did provide a Committee of Information, consisting of three citizens to be appointed by the concurrent action of the commissioner, the Mayor and the local police organization which would exist after the surrender of the charter. This second clause provided simply that one copy of the report of this Committee of Information should be filed with the commissioner, one copy with the Mayor, and that one copy should be published for the information of the citizens of Boston. The report neither had nor purported to have any binding effect upon the city, the Mayor or upon the commissioner. The two clauses referred to above give the keynote to the report, and it does not seem necessary to go into further detail, as the full report is given in the Appendix. (Appendix 8.) It was specifically provided in the report that the provisions of section 2 calling for a committee of three citizens "shall not apply to any questions of discipline." The plan embodied in this letter was submitted to the Mayor Saturday afternoon, September 6, and was approved by him. The plan was also informally offered that afternoon to the commissioner for his consideration, criticism and suggestion. No action was taken by the commissioner. Your Honor thereupon decided formally to submit the plan as approved by your Honor to the commissioner for consideration and this was done by letter dated September 6. (Appendix 9.) This letter was delivered to the commissioner at his residence at nine o'clock the next morning, Sunday, September 7.

As your Honor heard nothing from the commissioner in reply during Sunday and as the time limit set by the commissioner for delivering his finding in regard to the nineteen officers on trial would expire at 9.15 on Monday morning, and as your Honor knew this would precipitate a strike, you decided on Sunday evening after conference with your committee that the plan should be given to the citizens of Boston in Monday's papers and this was accordingly done. The plan was heartily approved by the morning papers of the city and by all the afternoon papers, except one, as thoroughly upholding the basic principle of the surrender of the A. F. of L. charter, and yet providing a method affording the patrolmen a reasonable prospect that their grievances would receive consideration.

It is true that in the brief space of time between Saturday afternoon when this plan finally took shape and 9.15 Monday morning there had hardly been time for the members of the Police Union to reach a final determination as to whether they would surrender their charter and accede to the plan, yet the Executive Committee (Mr. Macomber still being out of the city) was clearly of the opinion that on Sunday the plan was on the point of being approved by their officials, and that it would also be approved at a general meeting of the men. The opinion of your committee in this regard was also confirmed by the fact that the counsel for the Police Union, Messrs. Vahey and Feeney, both unqualifiedly advised the officials to accept it, and also undertook to attend the general meeting of all the members of the Police Union and there unqualifiedly to advise the men to accept it. Such a meeting could and would have been held probably on Monday afternoon, September 8, but instead of considering your committee's plan on Monday afternoon, the men as a result of the commissioner's finding of that morning (following his earlier declination to consider the plan) thereupon entered upon the business of taking a strike vote. This committee does not seek in this report to express opinion as to whether the commissioner was or was not justified in declining to adopt this plan, but merely to record the history of their endeavor to present what seemed to them to be a sound and constructive solution of the situation.

The commissioner's formal answer to your Honor's letter recommending the plan for consideration is given in the Appendix. (Appendix 10.) This committee wishes to state that in every conference the utmost courtesy was exhibited by representatives of the police organization in presenting their views and considering the views of the representatives of the committee. Messrs. Vahey and Feeney, counsel for the Police Union, were not counsel at the time the men became affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, but were retained and brought into consultation subsequently when the nineteen police officers were placed on trial. In view of various allegations which appeared in some of the papers it seems proper to say that all the members of the committee who came into contact with Messrs. Vahey and Feeney as counsel for the men are of the opinion that counsel for the men exerted every honorable means in their power to coöperate with your committee in order to find a way out of the apparent impasse in which the men had become involved when before receiving the advice of counsel they joined the American Federation of Labor.

An endeavor had been made by your committee on Sunday, September 7, to obtain a second conference with the Governor for the purpose of reporting upon the then critical situation and presenting for his consideration the committee's plan, but the Governor was reported to be in the western part of the state and such a conference could not be arranged. On Monday, September 8, the Mayor, in coöperation with the members of your committee, again endeavored to obtain a conference with the Governor and such a conference was arranged to take place early in the evening of that day. At that time the commissioner had taken final action in regard to the police officials. Your committee, in collaboration with your Honor, thereupon advised the Governor of the entire situation, presenting the plan and stating its status. Constructive action upon the principles proposed was urged. In the absence of such action your Honor and the members of your committee emphasized the prospective seriousness of the situation which would result from the absence of the great majority of the patrolmen and expressed their strong conviction as to the necessity of troops to the number of not less than three to four thousand to be present in Boston on the following day at 5.45 p. m., either upon the streets or ready in the armories.

The members of the committee at this conference were:

Gen. Charles H. Cole, B. Preston Clark, George E. Brock, John H. Macomber, Frederic S. Snyder, P. A. O'Connell, A. C. Ratshesky, James J. Storrow.

On Tuesday, September 9, at about one o'clock, your Honor, as set forth in your letter to the chairman (Appendix 15), visited the commissioner at his office in Pemberton square, and was assured by the commissioner that he had the situation well in hand and had ample means at his disposal for the protection of the city.

Your Honor asked him whether he did not think he ought to have the State Guard ready for emergencies, and the commissioner replied that he did not need it and did not want it. (Appendix 16 and 17.)

Your Honor then suggested to the commissioner that the Governor's consideration of the question of protection of the city should be asked. The commissioner replied that it was not necessary, but consented to see the Governor with the Mayor. At this conference the same ground was gone over again. The Police Commissioner reiterated his assurances that he had the situation well in hand and had made ample provision, and again stated that he did not need or want the State Guard.

No action was taken. The volunteer police were not called to duty until Wednesday morning. On Tuesday evening, September 9, riots, disorders and robbery occurred, and on Wednesday morning, September 10, your Honor assumed temporary control of the Police Department, acting under the statute of 1885, section 6, chapter 323, which gives your Honor the power to do so, tumult having then occurred. Your Honor also immediately called out that part of the State Guard located in Boston, which you then had authority to do, and requested the Governor to order out three additional regiments of infantry.

On Wednesday morning, September 10, it was clear to the members of your committee that the situation had become a military one, and that there was nothing further your committee could do except to assist in securing trucks and other conveyances for the State Guard, which duty your committee immediately undertook. The prompt and patriotic response of business concerns to our request for trucks to move troops and supplies should be highly commended.

Your committee, also, at the request of the Mayor, undertook the task of aiding the Fire Commissioner to prepare for the possible contingency of a strike of firemen.

All discussions of a peaceful solution of the difficulty necessarily ended with the conference held with the Governor Monday night, September 8. No negotiations or attempted negotiations with the police officials or their counsel in regard to an amicable settlement were held after that time.

It was also true, of course, that by Wednesday morning, September 10, your committee could contribute nothing in the way of publicity to bring our citizens to see that it was undesirable for the policemen to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor because by Wednesday morning the preponderance of opinion against the policemen joining the American Federation of Labor or exercising the right to strike was overwhelming.

By Thursday morning order had been generally restored in the city. On Thursday afternoon, September 11, the Governor assumed control of the situation, as indicated by his proclamation of that day. (Appendix 27.)

In fairness to all parties it should be stated that, although a majority of the Executive Committee of your committee formed opinions as above set forth, yet at no time did the Executive Committee of the union, or the members of the union, vote to surrender their union affiliation or in any other way act upon the matter, except by vote to strike following the suspension of the nineteen members who were placed upon trial.

And in justice to the commissioner it should further be stated that at no time during the progress of the affair did counsel for the union or officers of the union or men upon trial take any position with the commissioner other than to insist upon continuing and retaining their membership in the union.

And in justice to the Governor it should be stated that at all times he assured the members of your committee that whenever called upon for a military force he would provide sufficient men — if they could be secured — to maintain law and order.

And in further justice to all parties it should be stated that the Governor, the Mayor, and the commissioner, in the opinion of the committee, acted at all times from the highest of motives and with but a single thought, namely, the welfare of the Commonwealth and its people.

Respectfully submitted,

George E. Brock,
John R. Macomber,
P. A. O'Connell,
James J. Phelan,
A. C. Ratshesky,
Frederic S. Snyder,
B. Preston Clark, Secretary,
James J. Storrow, Chairman,
Executive Committee.

The chairman has been asked by Messrs. Brock, O'Connell and Snyder, who are out of the state today, but who have each of them read the report, to affix their names to the report.

MAYOR PETERS' STATEMENT WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27.

The issue between the commissioner and the policemen is clear-cut. It is the question of whether the policemen have a right to form a union and become affiliated with the A. F. of L. The merits of this question are not, perhaps, so clear. All fair-minded people admit the right of any ordinary group of workers to organize and to become affiliated with some central or federated labor body, and, I am happy to say, most of us recognize not only that right, but the advantages to the workers and, in most instances, to the community from following such a course.

But it is argued that policemen are not, in this sense, ordinary workers; that they are in reality public officials, charged with the duty of impartially enforcing law and order, whose allegiance in their public capacity should be to their public duty alone. No one would deny them the privilege of forming among themselves an association which would enable them to secure the benefits of collective bargaining and such other advantages as organization brings. But when they take the further step of affiliating themselves with an outside body which, however meritorious, represents only a portion of the public, it is easy to see that complications might, and probably would, ensue which would not be in the public interest. Policemen are human, like the rest of us.

I am in entire sympathy with the fundamental aims of the A. F. of L. and believe it to be a wisely administered and progressively conservative organization. It is now a great, and I hope will steadily become a greater, bulwark of patriotism and strength to our country, a force on which we can rely to protect us all not only from those who seek unrighteously to wield the power that money gives, but also from those who through Bolshevism, or some kindred fallacy, seek to overthrow our institutions.

The A. F. of L. deserves our coöperation and support in every proper way, but I do not think that the policemen of any of our states or municipalities should become affiliated with it. This, as I understand it, is Commissioner Curtis's position, and in this I think he is right.

I earnestly hope both the A. F. of L. and the Boston police officers will voluntarily relinquish their plan. If they do so I feel that they will receive, in a greater degree than ever before, the commendation and support of the general public, and I am certain that those of us who are in official positions will at all times do all in our power to see that justice is rendered to them.

APPENDIX 3.

STATEMENT OF JAMES J. STORROW, CHAIRMAN CITIZENS' COMMITTEE, THURSDAY, AUGUST 28.

I have accepted the Mayor's request to serve as chairman of the Citizens' Committee somewhat regretfully, because I had planned this week to begin a much needed rest, but it seems to be my duty. At the outset I want to say I have not the faintest feeling of antagonism to the police officers. Many officers are my personal friends and during all my life I have seen them courageously, honestly and honorably protecting the life and limb and welfare of the citizens of Boston. I am deeply grateful for what the police officers have been quietly doing for me all these years and I am only too glad to stand up and acknowledge my debt.

I have tried to get over on the side of the fence on which our police officers stand and view this question in a friendly, sympathetic manner from their point of view. I now ask them to consider with open mind and with care the views I have set forth. They come from a well-wisher and a friend.

I do not see any objection to the police officers of Boston forming their own independent and unaffiliated organization so that they can put their best men forward to bargain collectively with the city, and I understand not the slighest objection has been raised to this. I am also certain that the citizens of Boston hold them in high respect and will be interested in and assist them in remedying any inadequacy of pay, over-extended hours or tours of duty, or any avoidable hardships or discomforts now incident to their duty.

The patriotism of the American Federation of Labor during the war, under the lead of its president, Samuel Gompers, cannot be questioned for one moment. I have stated this repeatedly and I am glad to say it again with all emphasis. As our Government advanced to exert its utmost force in the mightest war of all ages, the American Federation of Labor stood absolutely behind the Government and contributed every ounce of strength it possessed to make that force the knockout blow to Germany. Indeed I need not go further than to cite the work of the official labor representatives on the Public Safety Committee of our own state. Again and again we turned to them for advice and assistance. In not one single instance in two long years of daily intercourse did they fail to give us, in the spirit of the highest patriotism, sound advice and splendid help, and the labor organizations stood behind them to a man.

The right of the workingmen of this country to create and maintain labor unions for their own betterment and advancement cannot be questioned for a moment. They have been one of the most potent factors for the advancement of mankind ever conceived and engineered by the mind and hand of man. It is quite some years ago that, in my formal printed report on the Elevated railroad arbitration, I stated that it was altogether too late in the world's history to waste a moment in discussing the right of the Elevated employees to organize a union.

Now we come to the question of whether our police officers should join the American Federation of Labor and become an integral part of it.

I have given this question the best, the most impartial and the most sympathetic consideration I am capable of exercising. I have also approached it with entire respect for what appears to be the viewpoint of a large number at least of the police officers of Boston. I have lived long enough and seen enough of men to learn by this time that a manly man is a man and that a little extra veneer of education or of this or that cuts very little ice in all these fundamental questions.

I cannot help remembering that when I was a young law student I often walked into one of our criminal courts and sat through a trial. The case sometimes would be one of assault in the street. The most important witnesses would generally be the defendant and the officer. What the other witnesses said did not as a rule amount to much, and in fact if it had been a case of rough work in the street the officer would have been too busy capturing his prisoner and getting him away from the scene of the fracas to list up the other people present. Sometime the alleged defendant and the officer would be the only witness of any consequence and here the Court must plainly rely on the statement of the officer as the only unbiased man and resolve the flat contradictions in favor of the officer and sentence the defendant accordingly.

In like manner, if both parties to the assault were present the case would be about the same. Each man would say he was defending himself and that the other attacked him and the work of the officer settled which one of them went to jail and which one got off scot-free.

Most of our citizens see our officers performing their duty in the street; they do not think of the vital part of their duty performed in court as an unbiased and impartial officer of the law engaged in deciding whether a man shall be sent to serve a sentence or allowed to go home.

Many strikes have been carried through to a finish without a vestige of violence. But on the other hand any fair-minded man knows that in many strikes violence does crop out. It is the exception when assaults and destruction of property are carried on with either the encouragement or connivance of the officers of the union. But under the excitement and bias of a strike the hot-heads often do what the cooler heads and the responsible officers of the union deplore. Sometimes it is the sympathizers and over-zealous friends of the strikers who make the assaults, break the windows and occasionally go so far as to threaten bodily injury to innocent parties having no connection with the strike.

I do not question the good faith of the police officers in believing that in a strike in which the American Federation of Labor is involved they can preserve an absolutely judicial and unbiased attitude between those who are their fellow members of the American Federation of Labor and other members of the community who are not. But, indeed, I have lived too long to feel I can safely be subjected to special bias or sympathy for men on one side of a controversy and then be sure it has no effect on my views and actions. A man cannot always tell when he is being perfectly fair. We have all seen lots of men who we knew intended to be absolutely fair in their statements and position and yet it has been as plain to us as Bunker Hill Monument they were not.

I think every man in Boston would agree that it would not be proper for our judges to join a labor union. For hundreds of years justice has been depicted as holding the scales with eyes blindfolded. This has not been an idle thought. It means that ever since man became sufficiently civilized to establish courts of law, the universal consensus of opinion demanded that the machinery of our tribunals should operate without partiality and as near as is humanly possible without a tinge of bias for one man or against another.

But any man who thinks that our judges should not become affilated with a labor organization must, so far as I can see, reach the same conclusion in regard to the police officer. The police officer is engaged in the administration of the law as well as the judge. He is a part of it. His influence in sending the right or the wrong man to jail is oftentimes not less than that of the judge. If partisanship consciously or unconsciously warps the testimony of the officer, the judge cannot necessarily correct it. The judge is not a witness; he must convict or free a man on the evidence as given, and the account given by the police officer of what happened must weigh heavily with the judge and again and again will settle the defendant's fate.

There are many other points I might mention which have led me to my conclusion that our police officers should not join the American Federation of Labor. Suppose a police officer could be sure he has handled a case without bias and we will assume that, although his sympathy is on one side, still he has actually succeeded in showing not the slightest partiality, yet in a time of excitement and angry feelings how are the rest of us to know he has been successful in suppressing his feelings. Our courts of justice must not only administer exact justice to all, but it is vital that their findings when made should be beyond question or suspicion. Justice is depicted not merely with her eyes closed, but to put her impartiality beyond cavil her eyes are blindfolded.

APPENDIX 4.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT FIRST MEETING OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE, AUGUST 29.

Resolved, That the Citizens' Committee record its admiration of the Boston police force as a body of men which has won the respect and confidence of the whole community through years of firm, courteous, impartial and faithful service.

Resolved, That the Citizens' Committee express its recognition of the same, effective and patriotic services rendered the country by the American Federation of Labor.

Resolved, That the Citizens' Committee is not opposed to any organization by the members of the Boston police force within its own body.

Resolved, That the Citizens' Committee is opposed to the affiliation by any organization of the Boston police force with the American Federation of Labor for the reason that such affiliation tends to divide the allegiance of a body of men which in the very nature of its duties can have but one allegiance, and that to the whole community.

Resolved, That the Citizens' Committee in all friendliness urge the members of the Boston police force and the American Federation of Labor to recognize the reasonableness of this position and ask their coöperation in maintaining it.

LETTERS EXCHANGED BETWEEN CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE AND JAMES H. VAHEY.

BOSTON, August 29, 1919.

JAMES J. STORROW, ESQ., 44 State Street, Boston, Mass.:

DEAR MR. STORROW,— Mr. Feeney and I discussed last night with the officers of the Policemen's Union your statement in yesterday afternoon's papers. The men were surprised at your statement and believe that you made it without a full knowledge of all the facts, and they requested me to write you this note.

Very sincerely yours,

JAMES H. VAHEY.

BOSTON, August 29, 1919.

JAMES H. VAHEY, ESQ., 18 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.:

MY DEAR MR. VAHEY,— Thank you for your letter of this morning.

I am extremely anxious to see this question from both sides, and it would be a great favor to me if you could arrange for me today a conference with you and Mr. Feeney and the officers of the Policemen's Union. I am anxious to hear the policemen's side of the question.

Very truly yours,

JAMES J. STORROW.

LETTER OF CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE TO COMMISSIONER CURTIS.

BOSTON, September 3, 1919.

HON. EDWIN U. CURTIS, Police Commissioner, City of Boston, 37 Pemberton Square, Boston, Mass.:

MY DEAR MR. COMMISSIONER,—The Citizens' Committee is in conference with the officials of the Police Officers' Union and their counsel in the hope that an amicable and satisfactory solution of the present situation may be found.

We respectfully suggest that we conceive it to be in the public interest while these conferences are still going on that the disciplinary matter now pending before you should remain in statu quo.

Very truly yours,

James J. Storrow.

APPENDIX 7.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS TO COMMISSIONER CURTIS.

Boston, September 4, 1919.

Hon. Edwin U. Curtis, Police Commissioner, Boston, Mass.:

Dear Sir,—I have been watching with keen interest the conferences which have been taking place between the committee appointed by me a short time ago and the members of the Boston police force looking to a solution of the problems presented by the affiliation of the police with the American Federation of Labor, and impressed with the belief that a solution may be found honorable and satisfactory to the men and consistent with the principles which must be observed in an orderly administration of the police force.

With the fullest appreciation of the high responsibility that rests upon you, I must also have in mind the safety and security of the people. The importance to the public having this question settled satisfactorily impels me to ask you to postpone action for a few days only until the development of the pending conferences may be seen. If they succeed in solving the problem without requiring you to reach a final decision, friendly discussion will have achieved a result satisfactory to all concerned.

Very truly yours,

Andrew J. Peters, Mayor.

APPENDIX 8.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO MAYOR PETERS.

BOSTON, MASS., September 6, 1919.

HON. ANDREW J. PETERS,
Mayor of Boston:

DEAR SIR,—The Citizens' Committee appointed by you to consider the police situation begs to report as follows:

We recommend the following basis of settlement which we hope will commend itself to your Honor, the Police Commissioner and the members of the police force:

1. The Boston Policemen's Union should not affiliate or be connected with any labor organization but should retain its independence and maintain its organization for the purpose of assisting its members concerning all questions relating to hours and wages and physical conditions of work.

2. That the present wages, hours and working conditions require material adjustment and should be investigated by a committee of three citizens, who shall forthwith be selected by the concurrent action of the Mayor, the commissioner and the Policemen's Union, and their conclusions communicated to the Mayor and the Police Commissioner, and that thereafter all questions arising relating to hours and wages and physical conditions of work which the Policemen's Union desires to bring before the commissioner shall be taken up with the Police Commissioner by the duly accredited officers and committees of the Boston's Policemen's Union, and should any difference arise relating thereto which cannot be adjusted it shall be submitted to three citizens of Boston selected by agreement between the Mayor, the Police Commissioner and the Boston Policemen's Union. The conclusions of the three citizens thus selected shall be communicated to the Mayor and the Police Commissioner and to the citizens of Boston by publication. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any question of discipline.

3. That nothing should be done to prevent or discourage any members of the Boston police force from becoming or continuing to be officers or members of the Boston Policemen's Union, and that there should be no discrimination against them or preferential treatment of them or their officers because of membership in the union.

4. That there should be no discrimination on the part of the members of the Boston Policemen's Union, or any of them, against a police officer because of his refusal to join the Boston Policemen's Union or to continue a member thereof.

5. That no member of the Boston Policemen's Union should be discriminated against because of any previous affiliation with the American Federation of Labor.

APPENDIX 9.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS TO COMMISSIONER CURTIS TRANSMITTING PLAN OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

Boston, September 6, 1919.

Hon. Edwin U. Curtis, Police Commissioner, City of Boston, Mass.:

Sir,— I beg to inclose herewith the report of the Committee of Citizens appointed by me to consider the police situation. I have examined the report carefully, for I know the patience and thoroughness with which the committee has acted, and the extent of time they have given to a study of the problem.

The report commended itself to me as a wise method of dealing with the subject, and I recommend it to your favorable consideration. If acceptable to you and the men, it affords a speedy and, it seems to me, satisfactory settlement of the whole question. You may rely upon my whole-hearted support in making the plan suggested in the report effective.

Yours truly,

ANDREW J. PETERS, Mayor.

APPENDIX 10.

COMMISSIONER CURTIS'S REPLY TO MAYOR PETERS.

BOSTON, September 8, 1919.

HON. ANDREW J. PETERS,
Mayor of Boston:

DEAR SIR,— The Police Commissioner begs to acknowledge receipt of your communication under date of September 6. The commissioner has given to it that careful consideration which the occasion demands. It will be obvious to your Honor that the commissioner cannot consider this communication as having relation to the present duty of the commissioner to act upon the complaints now pending before him.

The commissioner can discover nothing in the communication transmitted by your Honor and relating to action by him which appears to him to be either consistent with his prescribed legal duties or calculated to aid him in their performance. The commissioner approves necessary betterment in the economic condition of the police force of the City of Boston and has heretofore expressed such approval, but these are not the conditions which require his present action.

The commissioner has therefore felt compelled to proceed to make his findings upon the complaints pending before him pursuant to the adjournment of such action heretofore declared. I am,

Very respectfully,

E. U. CURTIS,
Police Commissioner for the City of Boston.

APPENDIX 11.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS TO GOVERNOR COOLIDGE TRANSMITTING PLAN OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

Boston, September 8, 1919.

Hon. Calvin Coolidge, Governor of the Commonwealth, Boston, Mass.:

My dear Governor,— Inclosed herewith I am sending to you the correspondence between myself and the Police Commissioner of the City of Boston relative to the police situation.

The solution of the problem presented in the report of my committee, it seems to me, is a basis for a satisfactory solution of the situation.

I have been and am still trying to get in touch with you on the telephone this afternoon as I should like to go over the matter with you personally; and I am now sending this information to you at the State House in order that it may be laid before you at the earliest possible moment.

In addition to this correspondence, I personally laid the matter before the commissioner at a conference this noon and am unable to obtain his approval. I am now presenting it to you with my strong opinion that it offers a basis of solution. I hope you may feel that you can take steps to assist in the solution suggested, and I am glad myself to coöperate in any way possible.

Very truly yours,

Andrew J. Peters, Mayor.

APPENDIX 12.

REPLY OF GOVERNOR COOLIDGE TO MAYOR PETERS.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts,
Executive Department,
Boston, September 9, 1919.

Hon. Andrew J. Peters, Mayor's Office, City Hall, Boston:

My dear Mr. Mayor,— Replying to your favor and to the suggestions laid before me by yourself and certain members of your committee, it seems to me that there has arisen a confusion which would be cleared up if each person undertakes to perform the duties imposed upon him by law.

It seems plain that the duty of issuing orders and enforcing their observance lies with the Commissioner of Police and with that no one has any authority to interfere. We must all support the commissioner in the execution of the laws.

Regarding the matter of improvements in the conditions of employment in the Police Department of Boston the law requires that they be initiated by the Mayor and City Council, subject to the approval of the commissioner. If wages, hours or station houses ought to be improved, such improvements can be initiated by the Mayor and the City Council without any consideration of the making and observance of rules, because over that the Mayor and City Council have no jurisdiction. If justice requires improvement in conditions of employment, I believe such improvements, or such parts thereof as can be, should be made forthwith, accompanied by a statement that such additional improvements will be made at the earliest possible time and without reference to any other existing conditions in the Police Department.

There is no authority in the office of the Governor for interference in the making of orders by the Police Commissioner or in the action of the Mayor and the City Council. The foregoing suggestion is therefore made, as you will understand, in response to a request for suggestions on my part. I am unable to discover any action that I can take.

Yours very truly,

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

APPENDIX 13.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS TO GOVERNOR COOLIDGE.

BOSTON, September 9, 1919.

HON. CALVIN COOLIDGE, Governor of the Commonwealth, State House, Boston, Mass.:

MY DEAR GOVERNOR,— Thank you for your letter of September 9. I had hoped you would consider that the recommendations of the Citizens' Committee pointed the way towards a practical solution of our problem.

I am sorry that you have not viewed them in that light and that no counter suggestion has been presented. Perhaps it is not necessary for me to add that I am and have been ready to consider the question of hours, wages and conditions of the police force. My approval of the committee's plan, which involves taking up such matters forthwith, indicated this.

Very truly yours,

Andrew J. Peters, Mayor.

APPENDIX 14.

Boston, September 25, 1919.

To His Honor the Mayor, City Hall, Boston, Mass.:

Dear Sir,— At the conference with your committee held on Tuesday morning, September 9, you advised us that at its termination you were going to interview the commissioner and renew the conference with the committee at a later hour. This you did, and it seems to your chairman that your interview with the commissioner forms a necessary part of the records of this entire matter. If, therefore, it is agreeable to you we would be glad to incorporate with our report the essence of that conference with the commissioner.

We await your judgment and pleasure with respect to the matter.

Very truly yours,

James J. Storrow,
Chairman Citizens' Committee.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, Boston, September 25, 1919.

Mr. James J. Storrow, Chairman Citizens' Committee, 44 State Street, Boston, Mass.:

Dear Mr. Storrow,— I have just received your letter of September 25, in which you request that I outline the essence of my conference with Commissioner Curtis on the morning of Tuesday, September 9, in order that you may incorporate this statement in your report. The facts concerning this conference were as follows:

On September 9, at about one o'clock, I visited the commissioner at his office in Pemberton square and was assured by him that he had the situation well in hand and had ample means at his disposal for the protection of the city. I asked him whether he did not think he ought to have the State Guard ready for emergencies, and he replied that he did not need it and did not want it.

I then suggested to the commissioner that the Governor's consideration of the question of protection for the city should then be asked. He replied that it was not necessary, but he consented to see the Governor with me. At the conference in the afternoon with the Governor the same ground was gone over again. The Police Commissioner reiterated his assurances that he had the situation in hand and had made ample provision, and again stated that he did not need or want the State Guard.

Very truly yours,

ANDREW J. PETERS, Mayor.

STATEMENT OF COMMISSIONER CURTIS.

Commissioner Curtis greeted the announcement of the strike called by the union policemen with the statement, "I am ready for anything."

— Boston Traveler, September 9.

In the meantime Commissioner Curtis, when the news reached him that the police would probably vote to strike, said to the Post, "I have no statement to make as yet." Questioned as to whether he would still adhere to a previous statement, "I am prepared for all eventualities," the commissioner said, "I am ready for anything."

STATEMENT OF MAYOR PETERS.

Mayor Peters announced last night that during his conferences with Governor Coolidge and Police Commissioner Curtis he had been assured "that measures have been taken that will afford ample protection to the people at large."

"Police Commissioner Curtis," he continued, "assured me that he was in a position to give the people adequate protection. Governor Coolidge said he was fully prepared to render support to the Police Commissioner in any measure which might be instituted by the Police Commissioner. I am relying on these promises."

APPENDIX 18.

LETTER OF COMMISSIONER CURTIS TO MAYOR PETERS.

Boston, September 10, 1919.

To His Honor Andrew J. Peters,
Mayor of the City of Boston:

Sir,— I respectfully submit to your Honor's consideration that action by your Honor under provisions of statute of 1917, chapter 327, part 1, section 26, be taken by your Honor if it shall appear to your Honor that the present emergency in the City of Boston requires that action. I am of the opinion that tumult, riot or mob is threatened and that the usual police provisions are at present inadequate to preserve order and afford protection to persons and property.

I respectfully suggest that if the facts which I call to your Honor's attention appear to your Honor to exist that you will exercise the powers and authority specified and provided by the statute referred to or by such request as you may deem appropriate to the Commander-in Chief for such action as he may deem expedient or necessary.

Respectfully,

E. U. Curtis,
Police Commissioner for the City of Boston.

APPENDIX 19.

STATUTE OF 1917, CHAPTER 327, PART 1, SECTION 26.

SECTION 26. In case of tumult, riot, mob or body of persons acting together by force to violate or resist the laws of the Commonwealth, or when such tumult, riot or mob is threatened, or in case of public catastrophe when the usual police provisions are inadequate to preserve order and afford protection to persons and property, and the fact appears to the commander-in chief, to the sheriff of a county, to the mayor of a city or to the selectmen of a town, the commander-in-chief may issue his order, or such sheriff, mayor or selectmen may issue a precept, directed to any commander of a brigade, regiment, naval brigade or battalion, battalion, squadron, corps of cadets or company, within the jurisdiction of the officer issuing such order or precept, directing him to order his command, or any part thereof, to appear at a time and place therein specified to aid the civil authority in suppressing such violations and supporting the laws. . . .

APPENDIX 20.

STATEMENT OF MAYOR PETERS, SEPTEMBER 10.

I have hitherto relied upon the statement of the Police Commissioner that he had complete control of the situation.

I am now in receipt of a communication from him in which, in substance, he says that riots are threatened, that the police provisions are inadequate to preserve order, and requests me to take the steps contemplated by the statutes of 1917, chapter 327, part 1, section 26, namely, to call upon such militia as are within the City of Boston to preserve order.

This letter, coupled with the occurrences of last night, when substantial disturbances of public order took place, shows that the time has come when the business of preserving order should be concentrated in the hands of one person. Under such circumstances, the law places on the Mayor the power and duty to assume control, and I propose from now on to see to it that order is preserved and persons and property are protected within the limits of the City of Boston. I have therefore issued the following proclamation; have called out such militia as are within the city, and have requested the Governor of the Commonwealth to furnish me with such additional troops as I consider necessary.

APPENDIX 21.

PROCLAMATION OF MAYOR PETERS.

Boston, September 10, 1919.

It having been made to appear to me, Andrew J. Peters, Mayor of the City of Boston, that tumult, riot and violent disturbance of public order have occurred within the limits of the City of Boston, and the exigency in my judgment requiring such action, I hereby, under provisions of section 6, chapter 323, of the Acts of 1885, assume control for the time being of the police of the said City of Boston, and call upon the Police Commissioner to execute all orders promulgated by me for the suppression of such tumult and the restoration of such public order.

Andrew J. Peters, Mayor.

APPENDIX 22.

LETTER OF COMMISSIONER CURTIS TO MAYOR PETERS.

Boston, September 10, 1919.

To His Honor Andrew J. Peters,
Mayor of the City of Boston:

Sir,— Your note of September 10, notifying me that you assume control for the time being of the police of the City of Boston received. I respectfully await your action.

Respectfully,
E. U. Curtis,
Police Commissioner for the City of Boston.

APPENDIX 23.

LETTER OF GOVERNOR COOLIDGE TO MAYOR PETERS.

BOSTON, September 10, 1919.

HON. ANDREW J. PETERS, Mayor's Office, City Hall, Boston, Mass.:

DEAR MR. PETERS,— In accordance with the understanding between the Police Commissioner and yourself, he has transmitted to me a copy of his request to you for additional forces to maintain law and order.

I am awaiting any request you desire to make, and the Adjutant General is prepared to execute such request forthwith. I understand that you are in the process of or have already called to your assistance the Tenth Regiment of the State Guard. You are at liberty to call on me for whatever you desire.

Very truly yours,

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

APPENDIX 24.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS TO GOVERNOR COOLIDGE.

BOSTON, September 10, 1919.

HON. CALVIN COOLIDGE, Governor of the Commonwealth, Boston, Mass.:

DEAR GOVERNOR,— I have your letter of September 10 and am inclosing herewith a formal request for additional troops.

Very truly yours,

ANDREW J. PETERS, Mayor.

APPENDIX 25.

LETTER OF MAYOR PETERS TO GOVERNOR COOLIDGE.

Boston, September 10, 1919.

Hon. Calvin Coolidge, Governor of the Commonwealth, Boston, Mass.:

Dear Sir,— I have today, acting under the authority given me by section 6 of chapter 323 of the Acts of 1885, issued a proclamation assuming control, for the time being, of the police of the City of Boston.

I have also, acting under the authority given me by section 26 of part 1, of chapter 327 of the General Acts of 1917, called out such part of the State Guard as is within the City of Boston to assist in preserving order.

In my judgment this is not adequate for the exigency which exists. I therefore respectfully request you to order out such a number of troops as you may deem necessary in addition to those called out by me as above stated. I urgently suggest that the additional number should not be less than three regiments of infantry, fully equipped for field service, to be located as follows:

One regiment and two battalions at Commonwealth Armory, Boston; one regiment at South Armory, Boston; one battalion at Charlestown Armory, and that the troops which you order out be directed to report at the places specified at five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, September 10, or as soon thereafter as possible, to Brigadier-Gen. John J. Sullivan, who has been called on duty by me.

Very truly yours,

Andrew J. Peters, Mayor.

APPENDIX 26.

STATEMENT OF MAYOR PETERS, SEPTEMBER 10, 1919.

I have been so engrossed this morning in arranging the steps necessary to restore and maintain order in the city that I have only now had opportunity to consider the statement issued a few hours ago by Governor

Coolidge, in which he tries to place on me the responsibility for the distressing disturbances which occurred last night. I think I am entitled to state the facts.

Until riot, tumult or disturbance actually takes place, the only person who has authority to police the city is the Police Commissioner and he is appointed by the Governor. The committee of thirty-four appointed by me and myself have made every human effort to avoid the strike of the policemen, but received no coöperation from the Police Commissioner and no help or practical suggestions from the Governor.

Yesterday, believing that I was entitled to know that provisions had been made for the preservation of law and order in the city in the case of a strike, I consulted with the Police Commissioner. Mr. Curtis said that he had the situation well in hand, had made adequate provisions for any emergency, and assured me there was no occasion for alarm. I asked him whether it would not be wise to have the State Guard mobilized in order that sufficient forces might be on hand in case of an emergency. Police Commissioner Curtis stated in no uncertain terms that he did not wish their aid at that time.

In view of the law which gives to the Police Commissioner the sole right to enforce the law, had I called out the part of the State Guard located in Boston when the commissioner stated he did not wish their services, I would have had a body of men with no authority and would have created tremendous confusion. This is so obvious that the statement by the Governor in which he tries to remove the responsibility from Commissioner Curtis and to place it on me is the more astounding.

Furthermore, in a recent communication from the Governor, he states so plainly that no one has any authority to interfere with the Police Commissioner that I should have hesitated to take control of a situation which the Police Commissioner assured me was under control, even had I had the power.

I had no alternative but to give the Police Commissioner a chance to demonstrate that he had adequately provided for the situation. The events of last night having demonstrated that he has misjudged it, I have today been obliged to call out that part of the State Guard situated in Boston and have requested the Governor to issue orders for the mobilization of an additional 3,000 men.

APPENDIX 27.

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE'S PROCLAMATION, SEPTEMBER 11, 1919.

The Governor's action in taking charge of the police force was accomplished by the following proclamation.

"The entire State Guard of Massachusetts has been called out. Under the constitution the Governor is the commander-in-chief thereof by an authority of which he could not, if he chose, divest himself. That command I must and will exercise. Under the law I hereby call upon all the police of Boston who have loyally and in a never-to-be-forgotten way remained on duty to aid me in the performance of my duty in the restoration of order in the City of Boston, and each of such officers is required to act in obedience to such orders as I may hereafter issue or cause to be issued.

"I call on every citizen to aid me in the maintenance of law and order.

Calvin Coolidge, Governor.

"Given at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this eleventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-third.

"God save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

APPENDIX 28.

STATEMENT OF MAYOR PETERS, SEPTEMBER 11, 1919.

In the situation which now confronts the City of Boston it is of importance that the position of the Executive of the City Government should be made absolutely clear and that every citizen should understand the nature of the issue involved. That issue today is whether the police of the city shall remain an independent force under the sole representatives of the whole people or whether they should pass under the control of one particular body of its citizens; a body not responsible to the people of Boston.

To this I am just as much opposed as I should be to handing the government over to the bankers, the lawyers, or any other class in the community. I do not mean that any just grievances which the members of the police force may have should not receive fair consideration.

They should, of course, be treated fairly both as to pay and as to hours and conditions of work, but it is unthinkable that such action should be sought or obtained by the police through violation of their oaths of office or refusal to perform their plain duty to the community. The police are the organized force which protects society against crime. Policemen stand on the same basis as members of the army which protects the community against foreign enemies. For policemen to join an outside organization and strike in order to improve their own private situation is as much betrayal of the community as it would be for soldiers to strike in order to better their own pay and quarters. In my judgment no compromise on this issue is possible.

I have just received a copy of the proclamation of the Governor of Massachusetts, and his assumption therein of the management of Boston's police force in addition to his powers as Commander-in-Chief of the military forces of the Commonwealth.

The Governor having called upon all the citizens to assist him in his efforts, as Mayor of the city, I urge the utmost coöperation of the people of our city in the maintenance of law and order, and pledge my loyal, earnest and complete support.

ANDREW J. PETERS, Mayor.

APPENDIX 29.

STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE BOSTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PUBLISHED IN THE PAPERS OF AUGUST 27.

FAVOR KEEPING POLICE OUT OF UNIONS.

Chamber of Commerce Admits Right to Organize, But Not With Outside Bodies.

With reference to the statement published regarding the position of the Boston Chamber of Commerce in the police controversy, the Board of Directors of the Chamber has issued the following statement of the Chamber's attitude in the matter:

"The position of the Boston Chamber of Commerce in the present police difficulty is as follows:

"The Chamber represents the business not of any one class but of the whole community. It looks at the solution of any community problem solely from the standpoint of the community and not from the standpoint of any particular class.

"From that point of view the Chamber is not in the least antagonistic to organized labor. It recognizes the rights of all men to organize and that the only limitation upon such rights must be the infringement of the rights of others.

"The present situation with the police, however, is not a question whether the police shall organize. There is no reason why the police should not organize within the department or present any claims or grievances collectively to the proper authority.

"The sole question is whether their organization should be affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and a very brief consideration of what a policeman really is in the community shows at once that an organization of police cannot be associated with an outside body.

"The duty of a policeman is to maintain order in the community. In other words, a policeman is an officer of the law. In time of trouble between different parties, it is his province to see that the law is impartially enforced.

"It is therefore manifestly impossible that he should be actually affiliated with any outside body which shall in the least influence his action as an impartial upholder of the law.

"As an illustration, in the event of a sympathetic strike by outside organizations with which the policemen might be affiliated, the police might be called upon to strike. In other words, their allegiance might be divided between the law which they have sworn to uphold, and an outside organization which they have likewise promised to support. Such a situation would leave the community without any protection at all, and is manifestly impossible.

"For this reason it seems to the Chamber that the present difficulty is not all with the general principle of organized labor. It is whether officials of the law should themselves be affiliated with labor unions and subject to the direction of their leaders. Looked at in this way it is as impossible for a policeman to be affiliated with labor unions as for a judge upon the bench. No man can serve two masters."

APPENDIX 30.

APPROVAL OF PLAN OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE BY DIRECTORS BOSTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

BOSTON, September 6, 1919.

MR. JAMES J. STORROW, Chairman Boston Citizens' Committee, 44 State Street, Boston, Mass.:

MY DEAR MR. STORROW,— At a meeting of the Board of Directors held today it was voted that they unanimously approve the recommendations contained in the letter sent to the Mayor by the Executive Committee of your Committee of Thirty-Four, and published in this morning's papers; and it was also voted that, if requested by your committee to do so, representatives of the Chamber be authorized to urge the proper state and municipal officers to use their influence to make the recommendations referred to effective.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES A. MCKIBBEN, Secretary.

APPENDIX 31.

STATEMENT OF BOSTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, SEPTEMBER 14, 1919.

The Boston Chamber of Commerce issued the following official statement last evening after a special meeting of the directors:

"When the knowledge of the affiliation of the Boston police with the American Federation of Labor became public, the Boston Chamber of Commerce immediately placed itself on record as utterly opposed to such affiliation.

"It proffered its services to the public authorities with a view to aiding in the maintenance of public order in the event of a police strike.

"It would have welcomed acceptance of the plan presented by the Mayor's committee and accepted by the Mayor founded upon the principle:

"(1) That the Police Union disassociate itself from the American Federation of Labor.

"(2) That they effect their own organization which should, fundamentally, have no power to strike.

"(3) That such an organization be aided to present grievances to the authorities and to the public through the medium of a citizens' committee, which should ascertain and report facts and make recommendations upon which public opinion could be formed.

"The Boston Chamber of Commerce is, however, of the opinion that in view of the failure to take such action, and by reason of the fact that the patrolmen deserted their posts of duty, they thereupon placed themselves in a position where the consequences of their deliberate acts must rest upon and follow them.

"In view of the fact that their vote to strike was substantially unanimous, the consequence of that act must likewise be universal.

"In the opinion of the Boston Chamber of Commerce there remains nothing for the public authorities to do save to reconstruct and reorganize the police force and, as a condition precedent, to deny reinstatement to the men who left their posts of duty.

"We are of the opinion that the authorities should take such action as may be necessary to assure proper working conditions and proper remuneration, so that the Boston police service will attract men of the highest stamp and in whom the community will have complete confidence.

"Above all, we believe the police force should be so reorganized that the public may be insured against the repetition of any abandonment of service upon the part of officers whose peculiar duty it is to maintain public order under any and all circumstances."

APPENDIX 32.

EDITORIALS OF BOSTON NEWSPAPERS COMMENTING ON PLAN OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

SOLVING THE POLICE DIFFICULTY.

The proposition put forward by the Citizens' Committee appointed by the Mayor seems to offer a very workable solution of the police situation.

It does not take away from the disciplinary power of the commissioner, and it does afford a method for the police to get a hearing at any time on any grievances they may have.

The commissioner is on record as not opposing an organization among the policemen themselves, and the proposed plan provides for this.

For either the commissioner or the police to refuse this solution of the difficulty would be a grave mistake.

The plan in its present form, or as it may be amended along similar lines, is worthy of a trial and should at least have its chance.

A strike under these conditions is unthinkable, and the sympathetic strikes which might follow would set back the principle of collective negotiation immeasurably.

The public at large will recognize the fairness of the proposition of the Citizens' Committee, and the people are, after all, the court of last resort, and their interests are entitled to first consideration.

— Boston Globe, September 8, 1919.

THE STRIKE COMPROMISE.

The Mayor's committee, of which Mr. Storrow is the chairman, has made a report on the police situation which appears on the front page this morning. It is a compromise. It gives the patrolmen everything they ask except affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, and since they sought that only as a device for bettering their condition, they have presumably gained everything. The report provides for the formation of a Boston policemen's union, which will give the necessary outlet for negotiations as to wages and hours and other conditions of life. It calls for an immediate survey of the policemen's lot, with the strong implication that this would be bettered.

We look to see the commissioner and the patrolmen accept this projected compromise. The latter, surely, can ill afford to go out on a strike on the single issue of affiliation with the American Federation, when they can have everything else that they are in reason entitled to, without that attachment. If they refuse to take this, instead of insisting on a strike, they will have no public sentiment behind them. Mr. Curtis, on his part, will be most generous to accept this compromise, but we expect him to do so, and should so advise him. Beyond that he ought not to go — indeed cannot go.

— Boston Herald, September 8, 1919.

A Wise Solution.

The report of the Mayor's committee on the police situation, indorsed by the Mayor, is a happy solution of the whole difficulty. It provides a way for the police to organize which is thoroughly within the letter and the spirit of the Police Commissioner's rules. It gives to the men of the police force a broad and comprehensive approach toward a complete settlement of all their grievances.

We believe that such a plan will commend itself to the men of the force and to the commissioner as well, for there is neither victory nor defeat in it.

It seems a common sense settlement for which the committee is entitled to credit. They have approached the subject in a broad-minded way, thoroughly in sympathy with many of the claims of the men, and likewise, keenly alive to the position of the commissioner.

The Post feels quite sure that this way out of the difficulty will be indorsed by the citizens of Boston as reasonable and wise. We trust it will be speedily agreed to by both sides.

— Boston Post, September 8, 1919.

Compromise Suggested in Police Crisis Honorable and Just.

The police situation is like the deadly calm that precedes the storm. No one should rock the boat. Least of all the public officials. No one should stand upon technical rights. It is a condition and not a theory that faces us.

The Citizens' Committee has suggested a compromise which seems honorable and just, both to the official representatives of the public and to the men. The American believes that Commissioner Curtis was right in objecting to the police force assuming an obligation that might become inconsistent with their oath of office. On the other hand, the rights of the men have been neglected and postponed, and it is human nature that they should take the accepted method of enforcing their just demands. If there is a sincere interest on the part of the public officials to better the working conditions of the police force and to give them adequate wages under the plan suggested by the Citizens' Committee, then upon the face of the plan it seems a happy way out of the crisis.

Let no one get rattled, and neither shift position in the boat violently nor keep up any sail that ought to be reefed in view of the threatening skies.

— Boston American, September 8, 1919.

PUBLIC SAFETY MENACED AS CURTIS IGNORES PEACE PLAN.

A police strike is imminent and disorder is in consequence about to be turned loose upon this city because the Police Commissioner elects to pursue his case to the extreme of insistence rather than consider the welfare of the public.

The commissioner has until 5 p. m. today to exert his power to undo the evil which has been done. He has found certain members of the police force guilty of violation of a police rule made for the occasion. He has announced that he will utter his judgment at 5 o'clock roll call. Upon the nature of his utterance may depend the safety of the city.

The Police Commissioner appears to be under an unfortunate influence, with sinister consequences. Acting upon whatever advice he regards as desirable, he has been unreceptive to the efforts of the Mayor's special committee, apparently unable to recognize the fact that this committee is the only voice of the public, and apparently unable to recognize the fact that the public is the one party that must be served in the matter.

The Police Commissioner is on record as agreeable to organization of the police among themselves, not affiliated with the A. F. of L. That the police have just grievances is true. Their hours are burdensome and their pay is inadequate. They have the right to some method of presenting those grievances. The commissioner held that they had no right to affiliate with an outside organization, and this attitude of the commissioner had public approval.

The commissioner's present attitude, that a compromise recommendation which eliminates this outside affiliation and permits inside organization is not entitled to his favorable consideration, is hostile to the public interest, defiant of public opinion and menacing to public safety.

The case of the Boston policemen has at all times been susceptible to amicable adjustment without a strike. The Mayor's special committee has worked to that end, and has presented a workable plan for solution. This plan the commissioner, badly advised, has thrown in the waste basket.

The Record believes that the public resents being thrown in the waste basket by a police commissioner or by a legal adviser whose conception of the situation appears to be contaminated by an undue inflation of a plain matter of common sense and public welfare into a legal cause célèbre.

— Boston Evening Record, September 8, 1919.

No Time for Surrender.

Having thus far failed in their efforts to induce the guilty members of the Boston police force to abandon their mistaken course and avail themselves of the peaceful processes of the courts for the ventilation of their grievances, real or imaginary, against Commissioner Curtis, the Mayor and the members of his committee should have been content to rest upon the laurels of their good intentions and given to the commissioner in the name of the people of Boston a renewed assurance of their indorsement and support of his courageous stand.

Instead of doing that the Mayor forwarded Sunday to Commissioner Curtis, on behalf of his committee and with his indorsement, what we believe will ultimately be rated as one of the most deplorable documents in the municipal annals of this historic city. In that document the Mayor and his committee recommend as "a basis of settlement" terms which if put into effect would emasculate the office of the commissioner and render him impotent to maintain the morale of his command. No self-respecting commissioner could tolerate such a compromise. No commissioner who would accept it as "a basis of settlement" could, as we believe, retain the confidence and support of his superior officer, the Governor of Massachusetts, much less the respect of the people.

The dignity and firmness with which Commissioner Curtis promptly rejected the compromise are in keeping with his entire course, and characteristic of his courage and common sense. The voice of Boston and the voice of Massachusetts speak in his letter to the Mayor and the sooner the basis of settlement proposed to him is officially and formally withdrawn, the better it will be for the reputation of Boston in the outside world. Ours is not a city whose people are willing to surrender in the face of threats from foes without or within, and now is the time and this the place for a finish fight if the Boston policemen make their membership in the American Federation of Labor the price of peace.

— Boston Transcript, September 9, 1919.

THE PUBLIC WELFARE SHOULD COME FIRST.

The crisis in the police situation has arrived with a rush. It is a deplorable fact that the verdict of "guilty" has been pronounced against nineteen members of the force by Commissioner Curtis at the very moment when the Storrow committee had offered a solution that appealed strongly to the public and many of the police.

The plan of the Mayor's committee practically guarantees the police the benefits they desire. The ends they have in view are higher wages and better working conditions. Affiliation with the A. F. of L. was never an end in itself, but only a means to an end.

The only point at which the police have been at variance with public sentiment has been in the insistence that their association should join with the A. F. of L. The general concensus of opinion, as far as this newspaper has been able to observe, is that the police are wrong in insisting upon this affiliation. Men prominent in labor union leadership have expressed themselves as opposed to the notion of the police forming an alliance with organized labor. It is realized that such action can only arouse suspicion against the police and against organized labor as well. The refusal of the police of

New York City and in Buffalo to link up with the Labor Federation is no mere accident. It means that the sober conclusion of policemen in these two cities is that there is something inconsistent, something dangerous, in the guardians of the whole public forming an alliance with one part of the public.

A strike of the police would be nothing less than a calamity. It would place the lives and properties of all our citizens in immediate peril.

Either party to this dispute who will make a sacrifice of some nonessential point at this eleventh hour, in order to prevent the calamity of a strike, will be showing a true regard for the public interest.

The unbending course of Commissioner Curtis is, doubtless, intended to serve the common welfare. That welfare would have been better served in our opinion, if he had withheld his decision a little longer, and had taken into account the report of the Mayor's committee. He can, even now, in the cause of conciliation and public safety, postpone the sentencing of the nineteen men indefinitely.

The Storrow committee plan seems to have furnished so excellent a solution that the commissioner could well withhold action without loss of dignity and with assurance of public approval. We believe the police would meet the commissioner half way in this matter.

If the commissioner, at roll-call tonight, pronounces sentence of dismissal or otherwise penalizes the nineteen "guilty" police officers, the public's defence will have reached its last line of trenches. The last line is the loyalty of the police. The public believes in that loyalty. It has stood every test in the past. This is the greatest opportunity the police will ever have to reaffirm their allegiance to the public. Whatever doubt or criticism has been voiced regarding the police in these days of intense feeling can be wiped out at one stroke — if the police will put themselves on record as approving the plan of the Mayor's committee. If the police will do this, we predict that public sentiment will do the rest.

— Boston Traveler, September 8, 1919.

The Police Crisis.

It was regarded as inevitable that Police Commissioner Curtis would find guilty the nineteen policemen recently tried before him for violating a rule he had promulgated as to the joining of outside organizations, and he has done so. It was expected by many that he would dismiss these men by last evening's orders; but this he has not done, and in refraining to do it has left the way open, we think, for an amicable settlement of the whole difficulty on the basis of the Citizens' Committee plan referred to in these columns yesterday.

The men are suspended, not discharged. This suspension does not carry with it the extreme penalty, because the imposing of the commissioner's sentence on the officers is also suspended — indefinitely it appears. The men are not removed from the force and its benefits. If an arrangement is made along the lines of the citizen's proposal, they will all go back to duty, of course.

As the Post said yesterday, this plan, which is in effect that the police form a union of their own inside the department and not under the jurisdiction of any outside labor organization, provides a way for the police to organize in a manner within the letter and spirit of the commissioner's rule and yet give them the benefits of a strong combination for the gaining of the benefits to which they are entitled. It is a genuine solution of the trouble, and an honorable one all around.

It is to be hoped that the policemen will not strike as a result of the suspension of their officials and thus bring on a situation that would spoil all chances of a compromise such as the citizens' plan offers. We can hardly believe that they are so set upon belonging to the Federation of Labor as to jeopardize their careers and expose the people of Boston to untold dangers and inconveniences. The commissioner has held off for awhile; why not the men?

Amid all this tumult of conflicting desires and determinations, the Post is still of the opinion that it is highly important to get the decision of the court on the mooted question, and trusts that action will be taken in that direction at once. If the court fails to sanction the commissioner, he must, of course, recognize the union. If the court does sustain him, the policemen would be foolish, indeed, to strike against the court's decision. The Mayor's committee's plan would then afford them an easy and dignified way out of the difficulty.

Meantime, for the best interests of everybody, there should be no strike.

UNITED PRINTING TRADES UNION COUNCIL BOSTON 21

[Document 122 — 1919.]

STATEMENT ON THAT PART OF THE MESSAGE OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR WHICH HAS TO DO WITH THE TAX LIMIT OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

By Hon. Andrew J. Peters, Mayor of Boston.

Object of Proposed Legislation.

The object of this bill is to increase the tax limit of the City of Boston, which for the present year has been $9.52 per thousand for general municipal purposes, by an act which for three years will increase that amount so that it will stand at $11.52 for general municipal purposes.

This bill is introduced in accordance with the suggestion of his Excellency the Governor in his address to the members of the General Court at its present general session, when he said:

> The amount of money raised by taxation and devoted to school and other municipal purposes in Boston and in other of our cities is limited by law. It is insufficient to meet the present requirements. I recommend that authority be granted the City of Boston and other cities to increase the amount which may be raised by taxation for school and other municipal purposes.

Existing Laws.

The tax limit of the City of Bostor is fixed by general law at $6.52 per thousand on the average valuation of the city for the preceding three years. By the acts of the General Court for 1918 and 1919 (Special Acts of 1918, chapter 120, and Special Acts of 1919, chapter 172), the limit was raised by $3 and now stands temporarily at $9.52 per thousand.

As both of these acts which increased the tax limit of the City of Boston were operative only for one year, the city, without additional legislation at the present time, will be subject to the regular statutory limitation of $6.52 for municipal purposes for 1920.

Changed conditions which affect individuals, private industries and municipal activities alike, make imperative the increase of the amount granted by each of the two previous Legislatures.

Revenue Inadequate for Present Needs.

For the year 1920 the estimates for general municipal purposes, not allowing for any increases in salaries, are		$21,690,944 72
Available on the tax basis of $9.52 per thousand (the limit for the last 2 years),	$14,176,382 81
Estimated other revenue for the year	5,000,000 00
Total		19,176,382 81
Deficit		$2,514,561 91
Amount available from $2 increase in tax limit		2,978,231 68
Surplus		$463,669 77

The present yield of $6.52 per thousand for municipal purposes, plus the revenue from other sources, provides for all departmental expenditures except those of the county, of the debt and interest demands, of the state and metropolitan district taxes and assessments, and of the schools. The amount available is lessened by reason of a decrease in valuation caused by the operation of the income tax law of 1917, as there is a loss in appropriating power by the city over the previous year, based on the limit of $9.52 per thousand, of $283,915.91. In addition to this loss of revenue, there is a loss of $469,374 on liquor licenses, and in addition to these two items there must be added the amount of increase in salaries granted on June 1, 1919, which for the current year are only included for seven months, but which for the ensuing year must be included for twelve months, amounting to $416,000. These items make a total decrease in the available funds of $1,169,289.91.

During the war, increases in real estate values almost ceased. Had the normal increase in real estate values taken place, and had the city not been deprived of the right to tax intangible personal property, which is now taken from the city's valuation, the average valuation for the three years to December 31, 1919, would have been $1,662,934,365 instead of $1,489,115,842, an estimated difference of $173,818,523. This would have produced on a tax limit of $9.52 on the thousand an additional amount of $1,654,752 in revenue for the city.

No reduction in the estimated expenditures sufficient to meet the deficit which would exist under the present tax limit is possible. A large proportion of the city's expenditures are not even under the control of the Mayor. Of the $44,384,146.09 appearing in the 1919 tax bill, only $16,464,039.91, or about 37 per cent of the total, is under the control of the Mayor. This may be seen from the following summary:

State tax and assessments	$8,020,546 53
Schools	8,451,234 44
City debt requirements	5,801,685 68
County expenses	2,259,380 71
Police Department, Licensing Board and Finance Commission	3,386,258 82
Not under control of Mayor	$27,919,106 18
Under control of Mayor, about 37 per cent	16,465,039 91
Total	$44,384,146 09

Of the amount of the state tax the Elevated deficit is responsible for $2,905,930.87, Boston's share, no part of which was caused by official acts of the city.

COST OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

The cost of running the city government has increased along with the cost of everything else. The cost of food for use in the various city institutions and the cost of supplies purchased by all the city departments have increased likewise. City salary increases have been very moderate and much less than the increases given in other public services or outside the city service in general. City salary increases this year were limited to $100 per annum and were given only to those employees who received less than $1,800 per annum and who were recommended for increases by the heads of departments, except in the cases of policemen and firemen, where increases of $200 per year were granted. The pay of laborers was increased from $3 to $3.50 per day, and that of mechanics was increased from $4 to $4.50 per day. These are, in general, the increases given this year by the city.

No curtailment in the city expenses to meet this situation could have been made. It would not have been possible to discontinue the service which the city renders to the public in any of its departments. Current demands indicate a desire for still greater municipal service rather than for its curtailment in any respect.

The streets of the city, while their condition has been greatly improved as a result of the improvements made possible by reason of increases in the tax limit, require further appropriations. No one can question the wisdom of this policy, and it is equally certain that such a policy must be extended further to complete the repairing of the main arteries. Additional expenditures are necessary for this, and it is planned, if this increase is granted, to continue the work on the main highways of traffic by letting out a certain amount of work each year by public contract.

Labor.

Economic changes in the last few years have added greatly to the cost of living and have justified the demands for increased compensation. These demands the state and county have recognized by giving to their employees an increase of 10 per cent. Last year I was able to grant but limited increases to employees of the city, and now the problem of adequate compensation for the city employees has become a most pressing one.

For the past few months much of my time has been given over to conferences with delegations of employees seeking relief in the form of increased salaries and wages, in order that they may provide the necessities of life for themselves and for their families. No one could have listened to them, as I have, without being profoundly impressed by the hardships which the present conditions impose on them. Many of the city employees are holding positions at the same rate of compensation which prevailed thirty years ago, and are doing work which could not fail of recognition in any industrial organization by an increase in salary. I have been deeply impressed by the difficulties of the positions of these men. Were I not touched by their problems and the sincerity of their purpose I would not be human in my feeling; and did I not present to you a request for legislation which would enable me to at least partially grant their requests, I should be negligent in my duty.

MEASURE SIMPLY PERMISSIVE.

The proposed bill is the only means of securing the needed revenue, and it is both conservative and wise. The income asked for is the smallest possible amount on which the city service can be maintained. The bill is purely permissive, and does not fix a minimum for any expenditure or the amount of any expenditure; it simply fixes a limit beyond which the city cannot go. No other city in the state is subject to such a limit, and few cities in the country are so restricted. The legislation only allows the representatives of the citizens of Boston who have been chosen for such a purpose to expend the amount of money which such representatives deem to be essential to maintain the city service on an efficient basis.

This bill seeks to provide for the situation for the next three years. While no one can foresee emergencies that may arise, this new limit should be sufficient for our current needs, and will obviate the necessity of appealing annually to the Legislature for remedial action.

IMMEDIATE ACTION NECESSARY.

It is most important that this legislation be enacted during the present special session of the Legislature. The fiscal year of the City of Boston commences on the first day of February, and the charter provides that within thirty days thereafter the Mayor shall send to the City Council his budget for the coming year. To comply with the law, the preparation of the budget must be commenced immediately. The last two legislatures, because of the pressure of other business, were unable to pass the bill increasing the tax limit until April in each year. It is important, therefore, that this bill be enacted now, in order that the Mayor of the city may prepare his budget with a knowledge of what resources are available, and that the policies for the next two years may be planned with the heads of departments with a full knowledge of the resources of the city. Whatever the Legislature may determine in the way of the tax limit, it is undoubtedly for the interest of every one that a decision be reached immediately.

And the consent of the Board of Street Commissioners is granted to said company to establish and maintain the overhead single trolley electric system of motive power in the operation of its cars on said location and to erect, maintain and use iron poles, not less than twenty feet in height, at places indicated by red dots or circles on the aforesaid plan, or at such other places, to be shown by blue dots or circles on said plan, as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, and to place on said poles such wires and other appliances as the Fire Commissioner shall approve.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CITY COUNCIL ON INSPECTION OF PRISONS.

In City Council, January 31, 1920.

This report is made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 223 of the Revised Laws by the Committee on Prisons, which has attended to its duty and submits the following:

The report is on the Suffolk County Jail on Charles street; the House of Correction at Deer Island; and the Suffolk School for Boys at Rainsford Island.

Suffolk County Jail.

This institution was inspected twice and conditions found commendable and marked improvements noted. A baking oven has been installed and the inmates are furnished with fresh, wholesome bread. The addition to the jail designed for hospital and administrative facilities, and to make possible the holding of religious services, is now in process of construction.

The committee recommends the abolition of the bucket system, the only toilet method now available, which is in use. This disgraceful practice compels the inmates to eat their meals in close proximity to the foulness resulting from the system. Flush toilets and a running water system should be at once installed. Otherwise the jail is clean and the officers efficient. Formerly the inmates were denied any opportunity to exercise but under the present policy all are afforded ample means to enjoy healthful recreation.

The population of the jail averages from 175 to 225, of which a preponderance await trial. Many are bailed. The importance of having the jail within easy reach of all sections of the county is impressed upon those familiar with conditions. In rigorous weather such as we are now experiencing, with our streets next to impassable and a curtailed car service, the need of a centrally located jail is obvious. With the improvements under way and those recommended put into effect the Suffolk County Jail will be a model institution of its kind.

House of Correction.

The required number of visits were made by the committee. One while Mr. Sanford Bates was Penal Institutions Commissioner, and the other under the administration of Mr. Thomas C. O'Brien, the present commissioner.

Conditions at the island were found to be excellent. No complaints were made by the inmates and the committee has no criticism to make on the conduct of affairs. Appropriations in the new budget are recommended in accordance with the desire of the commissioner and the sense of the committee, viz.:

1. That a new sea wall be built on the northeast side of the island to replace the one destroyed by a recent storm. This is necessary to protect the power house and also to prevent encroachment by the sea.

2. That electric bakery equipment, consisting of motor-driven bread mixer, standard scale and sifter, steel troughs and steel bread racks, be installed.

Suffolk School for Boys.

The Committee on Prisons inspected the school twice in accordance with law. The management of the institutions by the superintendent is to be commended, but conditions are such now that the committee feels that mere physical recommendations as to the island would be futile. A loan was passed by the City Council for the erection of a necessary new building, but the committee understands that the necessary contracts for the same have not been signed. So the Council has proven its position in regard to improving conditions at Rainsford Island, and can go no further.

The committee strenuously opposes the proposed handing over to the state of this institution. It believes that the boys committed from Suffolk County should be sent to a Suffolk County school. It protests against state interference in local matters of this kind. It feels that the City of Boston is well able to care for its delinquent boys. While boys are on the island their relatives and friends can visit them, keep in touch with them and aid in their welfare. The boys have something to look forward to, and are more eager to earn their release when in touch with their friends, and for humanitarian reasons and for the principle of home rule the Committee on Prisons believes that this school should remain under city control, and not be merged with the state reformatory institutions.

For the Committee,

JAMES A. WATSON,
Chairman.

Such license shall remain in force until revoked by order of the city council. The fee for such license shall be five dollars. Wherever the word "licensee" is used in this ordinance it shall mean the person, firm, or corporation licensed under this section.

SECT. 2. No licensee shall so operate any such motor vehicle except between such termini and over such route and with such stopping places as shall be specified by the city council in the license granted under the provisions of section one, and, except in case of emergency, the licensee shall not deviate from the specifications of said license without the approval of the city council.

Sect. 3. No licensee shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater, or less, or different compensation for the transportation of passengers or for any service in connection therewith, than the rates, fares and charges applicable to such transportation as specified in the license granted by the city council.

Sect. 4. No such license shall be issued or become operative until the licensee shall have filed with the city clerk a bond of a surety company approved by the city treasurer, conditioned to pay any final judgment against the principal named therein for any injury to person or property, or damage for causing the death of any person, by reason of any negligence or unlawful act on the part of the principal named in said bond, his or its agents, employees or drivers, in the use or operation of any such vehicle. The bond shall be in a sum sufficient to cover each and every vehicle operated by the licensee in accordance with the following schedule:

For a vehicle having a seating capacity of five persons or less — $5,000.

For a vehicle having a seating capacity of six or more persons — $5,000 and $500 additional for each passenger seat in excess of five.

Provided, however, that a bond of $25,000 shall be deemed sufficient to cover all the vehicles operated by any one licensee.

Sect. 5. No person shall drive, operate, or be in charge of any such motor vehicle in any public street, way, or place, without first obtaining, in addition to the chauffeur's license issued by the Massachusetts Highway Commission, a special annual license from the police commissioner for the city of Boston, and unless both of said licenses are in force. The special license granted by the police commissioner shall be upon such terms and conditions as the police commissioner may deem proper to impose and shall be granted only to a person licensed under section one of this ordinance or to an employee of a person, firm or corporation so licensed.

Sect. 6. No licensee shall operate by himself or by his agents or employees any such motor vehicle unless it has been inspected and licensed annually by the police commissioner for the city of Boston. The fee for such license shall be five dollars for each vehicle.

Sect. 7. Every licensee shall file with the police commissioner for the city of Boston:

(a) A schedule of operation in conformity with section twelve hereof, showing the effective date thereof, the time of arrival and departure from and at all termini, and the time of departure from important intermediate points.

(b) A schedule or tariff showing the passenger fares to be charged under the license granted by the city council between the several points or localities and the principal intermediate points to be served.

(c) The seating capacity, according to its trade rating, of each motor vehicle which it is proposed to operate.

If the motor vehicle has been adapted for use as a bus either by converting a freight-carrying truck into a passenger-carrying vehicle, or by reconstructing, modifying or adding to the body or seating arrangements of a passenger-carrying motor vehicle, a statement of the seating capacity shall be added.

SECT. 8. No such motor vehicle shall be used or operated without a printed sign thereon stating the termini of the route, the fare to be charged, and the license number, which sign shall be so printed and attached to the motor vehicle as to be plainly visible to persons on the street, or without a printed sign thereon showing the schedule of service filed and in effect at the time, which sign shall be so printed and attached to the said motor vehicle as to be plainly visible to passengers boarding such motor vehicle.

SECT. 9. The license issued for such motor vehicle shall designate the number of passengers, exclusive of the operator, the licensee is authorized to carry in said vehicle, and no person driving or in charge of said vehicle shall take on or suffer or permit any more persons to ride or to be carried thereon at any one time than the number designated in the license, or permit any person to stand inside or to stand or sit upon any running board, steps, fender, dash or hood thereof, or permit any person to ride on such motor vehicle outside the body thereof; provided, however, that in addition to the number of passengers which said motor vehicle by the terms of its license is permitted to carry, children under seven years of age may be carried therein, in arms, or seated on the laps of adult persons accompanying them, but no passenger with a child in arms or seated on the lap shall be permitted on any front seat of the vehicle.

SECT 10. The licensee shall not reconstruct, materially alter, modify, or add to the body or seating arrangements of any such motor vehicle after the license thereof is issued, without first applying for and receiving the consent of the police commissioner for the city of Boston.

Sect. 11. No license for such motor vehicle shall be transferable or applicable to any other motor vehicle than that specified therein, provided, however, that the police commissioner may revise said license in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, so that under said license as revised another motor vehicle may be substituted for one previously covered.

Sect. 12. The schedule of operation filed by the licensee with his application for said license shall provide for the regular operation of a motor vehicle between the termini and over the route designated in the license. The licensee shall regularly operate a motor vehicle in substantial accordance with the schedule of operation filed and in effect at the time, except in cases of accidents, breakdowns, or other controlling emergency, shall operate such motor vehicle to the terminus of the route before turning around, and shall not operate nor permit to be operated any such motor vehicle off or away from the route stated and fixed in the license for the operation of such motor vehicle except in case of controlling emergency. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the operation, in addition to the service described in the schedule on file and in effect at the time, of special or extra trips over said route and between said termini during certain hours or on special occasions.

Sect. 13. No person operating any motor vehicle so licensed shall refuse to carry any person offering himself or herself at any regular stopping place for carriage, unless the seats of such vehicle are fully occupied, or unless such person is in an intoxicated condition, or conducting himself in a boisterous or disorderly manner, or is using profane language.

Sect. 14. No motor vehicle so licensed shall be operated from one-half hour after sunset till one-half hour before sunrise, with the top and curtains of said vehicle up, or while said vehicle is otherwise enclosed, unless there be sufficient light provided to adequately light the whole of the interior of said vehicle; and all motor vehicles so licensed with a seating capacity of more than seven passengers shall come to a full stop immediately before crossing the tracks of any railroad at grade.

SECT. 15. Every such motor vehicle shall be equipped with a suitable horn or other similar warning device, with a standard speedometer, and with a liquid fire extinguisher of a design or type approved by the police commissioner, and such horn, speedometer and fire extinguisher shall be kept in satisfactory operating condition at all times. Every such motor vehicle shall, when leaving either terminus, be equipped with at least one extra serviceable tire, and shall at all times carry and maintain in good working order a set of skid chains, which shall be applied to the rear wheels when such vehicle is operated in any street or public place where there is snow or ice, or during other weather conditions when the application of such chains is necessary to prevent skidding.

SECT. 16. No person operating any motor vehicle so licensed shall collect fares, make change or take on or discharge passengers while such vehicle is in motion; nor shall he have a lighted cigarette, cigar or pipe in his possession while any passenger is being carried therein, nor drink any intoxicating beverage or use morphine, cocaine, opium or other harmful drug of any kind, or be under the influence thereof while engaged in operating such vehicle.

SECT. 17. Every licensee shall immediately report fully, in writing, to the city clerk, the time, place, and cause of any fatal accident or any injury to a passenger or other person, and of any accident resulting in substantial damage to property, in which he or any motor vehicle or operator under his control is involved.

SECT. 18. The police commissioner for the city of Boston may suspend or revoke any license granted for such motor vehicle, and any license issued by him to any person to drive or operate such vehicles, for violation of any law of the commonwealth in relation to the operation of motor vehicles, or for violation of any ordinance or street traffic regulation, or for violation of any of the rules, restrictions, requirements or regulations herein prescribed, or for any other cause deemed by said police commissioner, in the exercise of reasonable discretion, to be sufficient.

SECT. 19. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this ordinance shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offense.
